Chapter 15

Case No. 09-12704 (JMP)

MOTION BY INSOLVENCY ADMINISTRATOR AND FOREIGN REPRESENTATIVE FOR AUTHORIZATION TO ENTER INTO AND APPROVAL OF A SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT WITH THE LEHMAN PARTIES

TO THE HONORABLE JAMES M. PECK
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Dr. Michael C. Frege (the “LBB InsAdmin”), in his capacity as duly authorized Insolvency Administrator and foreign representative of Lehman Brothers Bankhaus AG (in Insolvenz) (“LBB”), by and through his United States counsel, Sonnenschein Nath & Rosenthal LLP, files this Motion by Insolvency Administrator and Foreign Representative for Authorization to Enter into and Approval of a Settlement Agreement with the Lehman Parties
(the “Motion”) and respectfully represents as follows.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This Motion is filed in conjunction with a parallel motion filed in the Lehman Brothers bankruptcy proceedings, and seeks approval and authorization for the LBB InsAdmin to enter into a settlement agreement dated December 15, 2009 (the “Agreement”) by and among the LBB InsAdmin, in his capacity as duly authorized Insolvency Administrator and foreign representative of LBB and Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. (“LBHI”) (of which LBB is a wholly-owned subsidiary), Lehman ALI, Inc. (“ALI”),² and Lehman Commercial Paper Inc. (“LCPI”) (LBHI, ALI and LCPI, each a “Lehman Party” and collectively the “Lehman Parties”).

2. The Agreement resolves a dispute between LBB and the Lehman Parties regarding the ownership of certain loans and the parties’ legal positions with respect to those loans, and implicates certain of LBB’s assets located within this Court’s jurisdiction. The Agreement permits the resolution of the legal dispute and potential litigation with respect to the loans. Prior to the commencement of this case, LBB entered into certain commercial and real estate loan participations (the “Participations”) with the Lehman Parties whereby one party would act as the lender of record and/or agent (the “Lender”) for certain loans, and the other party or parties would acquire participation interests in those loans (each, a “Participant”). The Participations were in both the “US-style” or “UK-style.”³

3. A dispute exists among the LBB and the Lehman Parties over whether the Participations documented in the US-style constitute true sales. Assuming they are not, then where LBB is a Participant and a Lehman Party, or one of its affiliates, is a Lender, LBB would not hold a property interest in the underlying loans, but rather, only an unsecured claim against a Lehman Party as Lender.

³ UK-style Participations are typically documented as loans made by the Participant to the Lender. US-style Participations, in contrast, are typically documented as true sales of interests in the underlying loans that are subject to the Participation. When treated as true sales, the Lender has no equitable interest in the participated portion of such loans, and the interest and principal collected by the Lender are transmitted directly to the Participant.

4. The uncertainty over which party actually owns the underlying loans that are subject to Participations documented using the US-style form hinders the ability of either the LBB InsAdmin or the Lehman Parties to realize the loans' value or transfer the parties' rights with respect to the loans. Until this issue is resolved, neither party is willing to commit funds or devote the time and resources necessary to maximize the value of those loans.

5. The Agreement resolves this uncertainty and permits LBB to liquidate the loans that underlie the Participations by providing for: (i) the purchase by the applicable Lehman Party and termination (or, with respect to a few loans, an assignment) of LBB's interests in the US-style Participations where that Lehman Party is a Lender, and (ii) the purchase of LBB's interest in certain loans where LBB is a Lender, thus transferring legal and beneficial ownership of certain loans, whether in the US-style or UK-style form, to the Lehman Parties for an aggregate net payment amount of approximately $1,388,900,000 (subject to certain adjustments at closing).

6. As more fully set forth below, the LBB InsAdmin's decision to enter into the Agreement represents an appropriate and reasonable exercise of his duties, discretion and judgment pursuant to German law, his business judgment as an insolvency administrator, and is in the best interests of LBB's estate and creditors. Among other things, the Agreement resolves disputed legal positions of the parties and a potentially costly and protracted litigation among LBB and the Lehman Parties regarding the ownership of loans subject to Participations using the US-style form and the UK-style form. The Agreement also permits the LBB InsAdmin to realize the value of the loans and the legal position LBB holds, and do so in a timely fashion. In addition, the creditors' committee (Gläubigerausschuss) and creditors' assembly (Gläubigerversammlung) in LBB's German insolvency proceedings have authorized the LBB InsAdmin's execution of the Agreement, and the creditors' committee approved the Agreement itself, which are conditions to a closing on the Agreement. Accordingly, the relief requested in this Motion should be granted.

JURISDICTION

7. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order of Referral of Cases to Bankruptcy Judges of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (Ward, Acting C.J.), dated July 10, 1984.

8. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

9. Venue is properly located in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1410.

10. The predicates for the relief sought herein are Sections 363, 1520 and 1521 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Rules”).

BACKGROUND

11. On April 29, 2009, the LBB InsAdmin filed a Chapter 15 petition for recognition and for relief on behalf of LBB in this Court.

12. On May 22, 2009, this Court entered an Order: (i) recognizing the German Insolvency as a foreign main proceeding pursuant to Section 1517 of Title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), (ii) recognizing the LBB InsAdmin as the foreign representative of LBB, (iii) making the provisions of Section 1520 of the Bankruptcy Code applicable to this case, and (iv) entrusting the LBB InsAdmin “with the administration, realization and distribution of all of LBB’s assets located within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States, along with LBB’s worldwide assets. . . .” (the “Recognition Order,” Docket No. 25).

RELIEF REQUESTED

13. By this Motion, the LBB InsAdmin seeks entry of an Order authorizing his entry into and approving the Agreement and the consummation the transactions contemplated thereby.

DISPUTE

14. The Participations addressed by the Agreement, and their underlying loans, are divided into four categories. Category 1 and 3 Participations are those under which the Lehman Parties served as Lenders, and Bankhaus served as Participant (respectively, the “Category 1 Loans” and “Category 3 Loans”). Category 2 and 4 Participations are those under which Bankhaus served as Lender, and the Lehman Parties served as Participants (respectively, the “Category 2 Loans” and “Category 4 Loans”).

15. The Lehman Parties’ assert that the Category 1 and Category 2 Participations, documented using the US-style form of Participations, are not true sales.

16. The Lehman Parties’ also assert that with regard to the Category 3 UK-style Participations, the Participant has no proprietary interest in any monies received by the Lender from the borrowers.

17. LBB and LBHI are also parties to a Security & Collateral Agreement, dated August 15, 2002, whereby LBHI agreed to post cash collateral to LBB for any losses suffered by LBB if either an asset decreases in value below a certain level, or a borrower fails to make a payment when due and payable.

18. The dispute between the LBB InsAdmin and the Lehman Parties centers around the ownership of the Category 1 Loans. The Category 1 Participations exhibit certain factors that courts have identified as indications of a true participation, including that: (i) money is advanced by a participant to a lead lender, (ii) a participant’s right to repayment arises upon payment to the lead lender, (iii) only the lead lender has recourse against the borrower, and (iv) the loan evidences the parties' true intentions. However, the Lehman Parties assert that the presence of the Security & Collateral Agreement can be construed as a guarantee of repayment of the Participant interests in the Category 1 Loans, and, therefore, the Participations are not true participations in the US-style. LBB takes issue with this characterization of the Security & Collateral Agreement. This dispute presents the litigation risk that underlies the settlement.

AGREEMENT⁴

19. Following nearly a year of extensive and arm's length negotiations between the LBB InsAdmin and the Lehman Parties regarding the treatment of the Category 1 Participations, they have settled on the terms of the Agreement. The Agreement essentially provides for the purchase (primarily by termination of the Participations and, in a few instances, by assignment of the Participations) of LBB's Category 1 Participations by each of the respective Lehman Parties who are Lenders under the corresponding Category 1 Loans, as well as LBB's interests in the Category 2 and 4 Loans as Lender by the applicable Lehman Party that serves as Participant under the corresponding Category 2 and 4 Participations.

20. The terms of the Agreement are summarized in this Motion, which is filed in parallel with a motion seeking approval of essentially identical relief in the Lehman Parties' bankruptcy proceedings, In re Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc., Case No. 08-13555 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.) (Jointly Administered) (the "Lehman Parties' Settlement Motion," Docket No. 6303, attached as Exhibit 1). The LBB InsAdmin respectfully refers the Court to the Agreement,

This Motion and summary of the Agreement are provided for convenience only, and notwithstanding anything in this Motion or summary of the Agreement, the terms of the Agreement shall govern and control.

Capitalized terms used, but not otherwise defined in this "Agreement" section shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Agreement.

attached as Exhibit A to the Lehman Parties' Settlement Motion, regarding the details of the terms of the proposed settlement.

21. The LBB InsAdmin and the Lehman Parties have also negotiated a resolution of certain claims between them arising out of or relating to the Category 3 Participations and, inter alia, the Security & Collateral Agreement. Notably, under the Agreement the LBB InsAdmin and the Lehman Parties acknowledge that because the Category 3 Participations were in the UK-style form, neither LBB nor the LBB InsAdmin has any ownership interest in the Category 3 Loans, and the nature of the relationship between LBB and the Lehman Parties who are Lenders with respect to those loans is that of creditor and debtor. Therefore,

- A. With respect the Category 3 Loans, the LBB InsAdmin and the Lehman Parties have agreed that the LBB InsAdmin will have an allowed and accepted non-priority unsecured claim in the amount of $1,015,500,000 against LCPI on account of and arising from the Category 3 Loans after deduction of all claims which LCPI holds against LBB and/or the LBB InsAdmin on account of and arising from the Category 2 Loans and the Category 4 Loans (collectively, the "LBB Net Category 3 Claim").
- B. Further, the LBB InsAdmin and the Lehman Parties have agreed that the LBB InsAdmin will have an allowed and accepted non-priority unsecured claim as a creditor against LBHI on account of any and all claims arising under the Security & Collateral Agreement relating to the Category 3 Loans and relating to one of the Category 1 Loans (referred to as the O.T.A. Senior Loan) in an aggregate amount equal to $1,380,900,000 less the amount of any distributions that are received by the LBB InsAdmin in respect of the LBB Net Category 3 Claim (the "Security & Collateral Agreement Claim," and, together with the LBB Net Category 3 Claim, the "Allowed Claims"); provided, however, that the Security & Collateral Agreement Claim is subject to certain provisions relating to any substantive consolidation of LCPI and LBHI.
- C. The Allowed Claims shall be treated in a like manner to that of other general unsecured claims against LBHI and LCPI and receive treatment and distribution on account of such claims equal to that of other general unsecured claims against LBHI and LCPI, and shall not be subject to further defenses, whether by way of set off, recoupment, counterclaim or otherwise, or any claim under Section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise which would have the effect of subordinating either Allowed Claim to the claims of other general unsecured claims.

- D. On the Initial Closing Date, all LBB Participation interests, if any, with respect to the Category 3 Loans will be automatically terminated.

AUTHORIZATION TO ENTER INTO THE AGREEMENT SHOULD BE GRANTED

22. The LBB InsAdmin submits that the Agreement is in LBB's and its estate's and creditors' best interests, and should be approved pursuant to Sections 363, 1520 and 1521 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 9019. Rule 9019 empowers bankruptcy courts to approve compromises or settlements "if they are in the best interest of the estate." Protective Comm. for Indep. Stockholders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414, 424 (1968); In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 156 B.R. 414, 426 (S.D.N.Y. 1993), aff'd, 17 F.3d 600 (2d Cir. 1994); Fisher v. Pereira (In re 47-49 Charles St., Inc.), 209 B.R. 618, 620 (S.D.N.Y. 1997); Vaughn v. Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc. (In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc.), 134 B.R. 499, 505 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1991).

23. The decision to approve a particular compromise lies within the sound discretion of the bankruptcy court. Nellis v. Shugrue, 165 B.R. 115, 123 (S.D.N.Y. 1994). The settlement need not result in the best possible outcome for the debtor, but must not fall beneath the lowest point in the range of reasonableness." Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, 134 B.R. at 505; see also Cosoff v. Rodman (In re W.T. Grant Co.), 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir. 1983); In re Spielfogel, 211 B.R. 133, 144 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1997). The analysis must focus on the question of whether a particular compromise is "fair and equitable, and in the best interest of the estate." In re Best Products, 165 B.R. 35, 50 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1994) (internal citations omitted).

24. A court need not conduct a "mini-trial" of the merits of the claims being settled, W.T. Grant Co., 699 F.2d at 608, or conduct a full independent investigation of the basis for the settlement, Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, 134 B.R. at 496. “The court need only canvass the settlement to determine whether it is within the accepted range of reasonableness.” Nellis, 165 B.R. at 123 (internal citations omitted).

25. Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code also provides, in relevant part, “[t]he trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate.” 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). The LBB InsAdmin is seeking approval of the Agreement under Section 363 insofar as the Agreement contemplates the use or sale of the LBB’s assets.

26. Courts may authorize the sale, disposition or use of assets upon a showing sound business judgment. See In re Chateaugay Corp., 973 F.2d 141 (2d Cir. 1992); Comm. of Equity Sec. Holders v. Lionel Corp. (In re Lionel Corp.), 722 F.2d 1063, 1071 (2d Cir. 1983).

27. The Recognition Order specifically made Section 1520 applicable to LBB’s bankruptcy proceedings, and “Section 1520(a)(2) applies Section 363 to transfers of the debtor’s interests in property that is within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States as would be applied to property of the estate under Section 541.” In re Grand Prix Assocs. Inc., Case No. 09-16545 (DHS), 2009 Bankr. LEXIS 1779, at *10 (Bankr. D.N.J. June 26, 2009).

28. Therefore, this court has authority to approve a settlement requiring the sale or use of estate assets pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 9019. See generally id. (approving settlement involving sale or use of estate assets in foreign main proceeding pursuant to Section 363 and 1520, and Rule 9019); see also generally In re Artimm, S.r.l., 335 B.R. 149 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 2005) (approving settlement involving sale or use of estate assets under Section 304 (now repealed), and stating that settlement would also be approved under Chapter 15).

29. Characterization of the loans can only be obtained at the cost of protracted and uncertain litigation with the Lehman Parties regarding, inter alia, the weight that should be assigned to the presence of a guarantee in determining whether participations are loans or true sales, and also whether the Security & Collateral Agreement constitutes a guarantee. Because the Security & Collateral Agreement is not styled as a guarantee, the Lehman Parties would have the burden of proving that it functioned as a guarantee through fact-intensive litigation.

30. Even if the Security & Collateral Agreement is characterized as a guarantee, the Lehman Parties would have to overcome the fact that the guarantee was provided by LBHI, which was not the seller of most of the Participations, i.e. whether a guarantee from LBHI (LCPI's ultimate parent) should be construed as the equivalent of a guarantee from LCPI, the seller of most of the Participations in issue.

31. Any uncertainty as to the ownership of these loans and the parties' legal positions also hinders the LBB InsAdmin's ability realize their value in the best possible manner. Therefore, the LBB InsAdmin believes that the value of the Category 1 Loans would be best realized if the Agreement clarified the legal nature of their respective interests therein and determined the agreed purchase price, and if the Lehman Parties were given full ownership and control of the Category 1, 2, and 4 Loans. The Agreement accomplishes this by providing for the purchase of these loans (by termination or assignment of LBB's interests therein) by the applicable Lehman Parties who serve either as Lender or Participant therein.

32. The Agreement also allows LBB and the Lehman Parties to terminate their common interest in the Category 1, 2 and 4 Participations -- a result that is beneficial to both of their estates because of the substantive differences in their respective insolvency proceedings. Whereas the Lehman Parties may contemplate a long-term strategy for maximizing the value of the loans, this is not a viable strategy for the LBB InsAdmin in the German insolvency proceedings. The Agreement permits the LBB InsAdmin to realize the value of the loans in short order, resulting in an influx of cash to the LBB estate, while the Lehman Parties will receive them at a discount permitting profit on the loans in the future.

33. The LBB InsAdmin's decision to enter into the Settlement Agreement is based on a review and assessment of applicable legal authority, relative positions of the parties, the litigation risk and other economic considerations. The LBB InsAdmin believes that the purchase price and settlement amount are appropriate and reasonable in the face of litigation risk.

34. It is in the interest of LBB to consummate the Agreement in order to minimize risks related to changing market value of the underlying loans and volatility with respect to foreign exchange rates. Furthermore, the agreed payments to LBB under the Agreement would enable the LBB InsAdmin to make partial distributions to the creditors in the German insolvency proceedings and, therefore, avoid their future interest losses.

35. In accordance with German statutory law, the LBB InsAdmin shall realize the assets of the LBB insolvency estate. The realization shall be conducted within the discretion of the LBB InsAdmin to liquidate the assets in the best possible way and in keeping with the purposes of the German insolvency proceedings.

36. Finally, under the Agreement, LBB will receive significant, allowed and accepted claims against LBHI and LCPI, which are currently disputed.

37. For these reasons, entry into the Agreement represents an exercise of the LBB InsAdmin's sound business and legal judgment as an insolvency administrator, is in the best interest of LBB's estate and creditors, and should be approved.

GERMAN INSOLVENCY PROCEEDINGS - CREDITORS' COMMITTEE AND CREDITORS' ASSEMBLY APPROVAL

38. The creditors' assembly (Gläubigerversammlung) in LBB's German insolvency proceedings has discussed the Agreement extensively, considering and deliberating over the advantages, potential risks, uncertainties related to economic and legal issues, the value of the loans and notes, alternatives to the Agreement, the legal and commercial impact of the transaction on the insolvency proceedings, and the impact of the Agreement on the insolvency estate and partial distributions to creditors. Also the creditors' committee (Gläubigerausschuss) in LBB's German insolvency proceedings discussed the Agreement in seven meetings from May 2009 until mid-December 2009, considering the strengths and weaknesses of all facts and legal positions, alternatives to the Agreement and pros and cons of the Agreement in detail. The creditors' committee and the creditors' assembly in LBB's German insolvency proceedings support the Agreement and have authorized the LBB InsAdmin to execute the Agreement. In addition, the creditors' committee (Gläubigerausschuss) approved the Agreement itself on December 15, 2009.⁵

HEARING

39. This Motion is intended to be heard in conjunction with the Lehman Parties' Settlement Motion at a hearing scheduled on January 13, 2010 at 10:00 a.m. (ET). Objections to the relief requested in this Motion must be filed and received by January 4, 2010 at 4:00 p.m. (ET).

⁵ With the approval of both the creditors' assembly and creditors' committee, the provisions of the German Insolvency Code regarding sales to interested parties are satisfied. German Insolvency Code, § 160(ff). No other approval, including that of the German Insolvency Court, is required for the LBB InsAdmin to consummate the Agreement vis-à-vis the German insolvency proceeding. Notably, however, the German Insolvency Court has supervised the actions of the LBB InsAdmin throughout the German insolvency proceeding, including in the negotiation and execution of the Agreement.

NO PRIOR RELIEF

40. The Lehman Parties have filed Lehman Parties' Settlement Motion, requesting relief similar to that requested in this Motion, but in their bankruptcy proceedings. Except as stated in the "Hearing" section above, no other request for the relief sought herein has been made by the LBB InsAdmin to this or any other court.

NOTICE

41. The LBB InsAdmin has served notice of this Motion on (i) the Lehman Parties; (ii) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York; (iii) Weil Gotshal & Manges LLP, attorneys for the Lehman Parties, (iv) the attorneys for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors in the Lehman Parties' bankruptcy proceedings; (v) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (vi) the Internal Revenue Service; (vii) the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York; and (viii) the "Chapter 15 Notice Parties," as defined in the "Notice Application" (Docket No. 8). Additionally, all parties who have requested electronic notice of filings in these cases through the Court's CM/ECF system automatically received notice of the filing of this Motion. In light of the nature of the relief requested, the LBB InsAdmin respectfully submits that no further notice is necessary.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE the LBB InsAdmin respectfully requests that the Court enter the proposed Order attached hereto as Exhibit 2, granting the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as it deems just and proper.

TO THE HONORABLE JAMES M. PECK
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. ("LBHI") and its affiliated debtors in the above-referenced chapter 11 cases, including Lehman Commercial Paper Inc. ("LCPI"), as debtors and debtors in possession (together, the "Debtors" and, collectively with their non-debtor affiliates, "Lehman"), file this Motion and respectfully represent:

Preliminary Statement

1. This Motion seeks approval of a settlement agreement, dated December 15, 2009 (the "Agreement") and attached hereto as "Exhibit A," by and among (i) LBHI, (ii)

Lehman ALI, Inc. (“ALI”),¹ and (iii) LCPI (each a “Lehman Party” and collectively the “Lehman Parties”) on the one hand, and Dr. Michael C. Frege in his capacity as Insolvency Administrator (Insolvenzverwalter) (the “LBB InsAdmin”) of Lehman Brothers Bankhaus Aktiengesellschaft (in Insolvenz) (“Bankhaus”), a wholly owned subsidiary of LBHI, on the other hand.

2. The Agreement resolves a dispute between the Lehman Parties and the LBB InsAdmin over the ownership of certain loans. Prior to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, the Lehman Parties entered into certain commercial and real estate loan participations (the “Participations”) with Bankhaus whereby one party or one of its affiliates would act as the lender of record and/or agent (the “Lender”) for certain loans, and the other party or parties would acquire participation interests in those loans (the “Participant”). The Participations were either in the so-called “US-style” or so-called “UK-style.” UK-style Participations are typically documented as loans made by the Participant to the Lender, with no transfer to the Participant of any property interests in the underlying loans that are subject to the Participation. The relationship between the Lender and Participant under UK-style Participations is therefore a debtor-creditor relationship. US-style Participations, in contrast, are typically documented as true sales of interests in the underlying loans that are subject to the Participation. When treated as true sales, the Lender has no equitable interest in the participated portion of such loans, and the interest and principal collected by the Lender are transmitted directly to the Participant.

3. A dispute has arisen among the Lehman Parties and the LBB InsAdmin over whether the Participations documented using the US-style form are, in fact, true sales. If they are not, then where Bankhaus is a Participant and one of the Lehman Parties is a Lender, Bankhaus would not hold a property interest in the underlying loans, but rather, only an unsecured claim against the applicable Lehman Party that is acting as Lender.

4. The uncertainty over which party actually owns the underlying loans that are subject to Participations documented using the US-style form hinders the ability of either the Lehman Parties or the LBB InsAdmin to maximize the loans' value. Until this issue is resolved, neither party is willing to commit funds or devote the time and resources necessary to maximize value. The Agreement resolves this uncertainty and makes it possible for the Lehman Parties to maximize the value of all the loans that underlie the Participations by providing for (i) the purchase by the applicable Lehman Party and concurrent termination (or, with respect to a few loans, an assignment) of Bankhaus's interests in the US-style Participations where that Lehman Party is a Lender, and (ii) the purchase of Bankhaus's interest in certain loans where Bankhaus is a Lender, thus transferring legal and beneficial ownership of certain loans, whether in the US-style or UK-style form, to the Lehman Parties for an aggregate purchase price – net of certain cash loan payments received by the LBB InsAdmin and to be transferred or credited to the applicable Lehman Party – a sample calculation of which, based on the schedules attached to the Agreement on the date of its execution, results in an aggregate net payment amount of $1,388,900,000 (subject to certain adjustments at closing). In the aggregate, the purchase price for the loans and Participations being acquired by the Lehman Parties is below both the aggregate outstanding principal balance of the loans – approximately $3,459,200,000 – as well as their aggregate current “market” value (as estimated by the Lehman Parties and the LBB InsAdmin) – approximately $2,148,600,000 – thus providing the Debtors with an opportunity for a considerable upside profit from such assets.

5. As more fully set forth below, the Debtors' decision to enter into the Agreement represents a reasonable exercise of their respective business judgments, and is in the best interests of their respective estates and creditors, and all other parties in interest. Among other things, the Agreement resolves a potentially costly and protracted dispute among the Lehman Parties and the LBB InsAdmin over the ownership of loans subject to Participations using the US-style form where Bankhaus is a Participant. Furthermore, by resolving the ownership question and bringing most of the underlying loans into the sole ownership and control of the Lehman Parties at a discount, the Agreement also allows the Debtors to maximize the value of the underlying loans for the benefit of their estates and creditors. Accordingly, the relief requested in this Motion should be granted.

Background

6. Commencing on September 15, 2008 and periodically thereafter (as applicable, the "Commencement Date"), LBHI and certain of its subsidiaries commenced with this Court voluntary cases under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"). The Debtors' chapter 11 cases have been consolidated for procedural purposes only and are being jointly administered pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"). The Debtors are authorized to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

7. On September 17, 2008, the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the "U.S. Trustee") appointed the statutory committee of unsecured creditors pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Creditors' Committee").

8. On September 19, 2008, a proceeding was commenced under the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970 (“SIPA”) with respect to Lehman Brothers Inc. (“LBI”). A trustee appointed under SIPA (the “SIPC Trustee”) is administering LBI’s estate.

9. On November 13, 2008, the Frankfurt Lower District Court (Amtsgericht Frankfurt am Main) opened insolvency proceedings for Bankhaus, and appointed the LBB InsAdmin.

10. On January 19, 2009, the U.S. Trustee appointed Anton R. Valukas as examiner in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (the “Examiner”) and by order, dated January 20, 2009 [Docket No. 2583] the Court approved the U.S. Trustee’s appointment of the Examiner.

11. On May 22, 2009, the Court entered an Order Granting Recognition of Foreign Representative and Foreign Main Proceeding and For Additional Relief Under section 1521 of the Bankruptcy Code. See In re Lehman Brothers Bankhaus AG (in Insolvenz), Case No. 09-10583 [Docket No. 25].

Jurisdiction

12. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction to consider and determine this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b).

Lehman’s Business

13. Prior to the events leading up to these chapter 11 cases, Lehman was the fourth largest investment bank in the United States. For more than 150 years, Lehman had been a leader in the global financial markets by serving the financial needs of corporations, governmental units, institutional clients and individuals worldwide.

14. Additional information regarding the Debtors’ businesses, capital structures, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases is contained in the Affidavit of Ian T. Lowitt Pursuant to Rule 1007-2 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York in Support of First-Day Motions and Applications, filed on September 15, 2008 [Docket No. 2].

Relief Requested

15. By this Motion, pursuant to sections 105 and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019, the Debtors seek entry of an order approving the Agreement and authorizing the Debtors to consummate the transactions contemplated thereby.

The Participations

16. The types of Participations addressed by the Agreement, and their underlying loans, are divided into four categories. Category 1 and 3 Participations are those under which the Lehman Parties served as the Lenders for the underlying loans and Bankhaus served as Participant (respectively, the “Category 1 Loans” and “Category 3 Loans”). Category 2 and 4 Participations are those under which Bankhaus served as the Lender for the underlying loans and the Lehman Parties served as Participants (respectively, the “Category 2 Loans” and “Category 4 Loans”).

17. Lehman’s records indicate that the Category 1 and Category 2 Participations were documented using the US-style form of participation, in that the agreements state that it is the parties’ intention that the transaction is a purchase and sale, and not a financing transaction. The Category 1 and 2 Participations are governed by various oral and written participation agreements between Bankhaus and the Lehman Parties, including a Master Participation Agreement, dated November 10, 1999 among Bankhaus, LBHI and ALI, pursuant to which various loans originated by LBHI or ALI were participated to Bankhaus.

18. Lehman’s records indicate that the Category 3 Participations and some or all of the Category 4 Participations are UK-style Participations, in which the Participant has no proprietary interest in any monies received by the Lender from the borrowers. Thus, in contrast to US-style participations, UK-style participations do not constitute true sales of interests in the Category 3 Loans and some or all of the Category 4 Loans. Accordingly, subsequent to the Commencement Date, the Debtors have not forwarded payments of interest and principal from borrowers to Bankhaus or the LBB InsAdmin with respect to Category 3 Participations (where Bankhaus is the Participant). Instead, the Debtors have advised the LBB InsAdmin that they believe Bankhaus is an unsecured creditor for purposes of amounts allegedly due under the relevant Category 3 Loans.

The Security & Collateral Agreement

19. LBHI and Bankhaus are also parties to a Security & Collateral Agreement, dated August 15, 2002, whereby LBHI agreed to post cash collateral to Bankhaus in respect of any losses suffered by Bankhaus if either an asset decreases in value below a certain level, or a borrower fails to make a payment when due and payable.

The Dispute

20. The dispute described in this Motion centers around the ownership of the Category 1 Loans. The Category 1 Participations exhibit certain factors that courts have identified as indications of a true participation, i.e., “1) money is advanced by the participant to a lead lender; 2) a participant’s right to repayment only arises when a lead lender is paid; 3) only the lead lender can seek recourse against the borrower; and 4) the document is evidence of the parties’ true intentions.” In re Corporate Fin., Inc., 221 B.R. 671, 678 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1998). On the other hand, factors that courts have identified as indicative of “an intention to create a loan instead of a participation include: 1) guarantee of repayment by the lead lender to a participant; 2) participation that lasts for a shorter or longer term than the underlying obligation;

3) different payment arrangements between borrower and lead lender and lead lender and participant; and 4) discrepancy between the interest rate due on the underlying note and interest rate specified in the participation.” In re Coronet Capital Co., 142 B.R. 78, 80 (Bankr. S.D. N.Y. 1992). Here, three of the four factors identified by the Coronet court, indicating the intention to create a loan rather than a participation, are not present: the participations are coterminous with the loans; there are no different payment arrangements between any of the Lehman Parties and Bankhaus; and the interest rate applied to the participations is the same as the interest rate applied to the underlying loans.

21. The first factor indicating the intention to create a loan, however – a guarantee of repayment by the lead lender to the participant – is arguably present because of the Security & Collateral Agreement. This is the factor that has been singled out by courts as being the most critical. See in re Corporate Fin., Inc., 221 B.R. 671, 678 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1998) (“The most determinate factor of all...is the risk allocation involved in the transaction”). The existence of a guarantee “seems to result in a finding of a debtor-creditor relationship in most cases.” In re Woodson Co., 813 F.2d 266, 271 (9th Cir. 1987). Specifically, “[i]f the participant does not bear the same risk of loss as the seller, or if the seller has made a guarantee of payment to the participant, the transaction is generally considered to be a loan and not a sale of a mortgage interest.” In re Corporate Fin., Inc., 221 B.R. at 678. Thus, whether the Category 1 Participations are in fact true sales depends primarily on whether Bankhaus bears the same risk of loss as LBHI in the Category 1 Participations.

22. The Security & Collateral Agreement could arguably be construed as a guarantee of the Category 1 Loans; and if so, LBHI, not Bankhaus, bore the risk of loss on such loans. The Debtors have, therefore, asserted that the Category 1 Participations should be characterized as loans rather than true sales, and that as a result Bankhaus does not hold a property interest in the Category 1 Loans, but rather, only an unsecured claim against certain of the Lehman Parties.

The Agreement

23. Following nearly a year of extensive, arm's length negotiations between the Lehman Parties and the LBB InsAdmin regarding the treatment of the Category 1 Participations, the parties have agreed to the terms of the attached Agreement. The Agreement essentially provides for the purchase (primarily by termination of the Participations and, in a few instances, by assignment of the Participations) of Bankhaus's Category 1 Participations by each of the respective Lehman Parties who are Lenders under the corresponding Category 1 Loans, as well as of Bankhaus's interests in the Category 2 and 4 Loans as Lender by each of the respective Lehman Parties who are Participants under the corresponding Category 2 and 4 Participations.

24. The salient terms of the Settlement Agreement are as follows:²

Bankhaus Assets

In connection with the transaction:

- (a) Bankhaus's participation interests in the Category 1 Loans will, at the election of the Lehman Parties, either be terminated or, with respect to certain Category 1 Loans, assigned to the Lehman Parties indicated on Schedule 2 to the Agreement,
- (b) the LBB InsAdmin will assign Bankhaus's right, title and interest in the Category 2 Loans and the Category 4 Loans to the Lehman Parties indicated on Schedules 3

² This summary of the Agreement (this "Summary") is qualified in its entirety by the provisions of the Agreement. This Summary is intended to be used for information purposes only and shall not, in any way, affect the meaning or interpretation of the Agreement. Capitalized terms used, but not otherwise defined herein, have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Agreement. Nothing contained in the Summary or the Motion shall constitute an admission or a waiver of any of the Lehman Parties' or the LBB InsAdmin's rights to assert claims or defenses. Furthermore, this Summary and Motion contain statements of legal positions taken or which may be taken by the Lehman Parties and nothing contained in this Summary or Motion shall be deemed an admission by the LBB InsAdmin or signify the LBB InsAdmin's agreement with such positions.

and 4 to the Agreement (provided, that certain transferees may need to be facing banks³ to be determined by the Lehman Parties);

(c) the LBB InsAdmin will assign, transfer, and/or otherwise relinquish to the applicable Lehman Parties who are holders of the Category 1 Loans 100% of the Category 1 Loan Cash Amount (as defined below) and will deliver or cause to be delivered to the applicable Lehman Parties or other designated transferees of the Category 2 Loans 70% of the Category 2 Loan Cash Amount (as defined below); provided, that the Category 2 Loan Cash Amount may be retained by the LBB InsAdmin if, and to the extent that, such amount is deducted from the applicable Purchase Price for purposes of calculating the Net Payment Amount (as defined below); and

(d) the LBB InsAdmin will assign to LCPI all participation interests, if any, in and to those loans described on Schedule 6 to the Agreement (the “Schedule 6 Loans”) (all of the foregoing interests and assets described in clauses (a) through (d) above and any other assets being conveyed to the Lehman Parties under the Agreement being collectively referred to as the “Bankhaus Assets”).

Purchase Price

The Lehman Parties have agreed to pay the following aggregate purchase price (the “Purchase Price”) to the LBB InsAdmin at the Initial Closing (as defined below) or, with respect to that portion of the Purchase Price attributable to any Deferred Purchased Assets (as defined below), at the applicable Subsequent Closing (as defined below):

- (a) 60% of the applicable value of each Category 1 Loan,
- (b) 80% of the applicable value of each Category 4 Loan (excluding those certain loans described as “M-Loans” in the Agreement),
- (c) 53% of the outstanding principal balance of the M-Loans,
- (d) 70% of the Category 1 Loan Cash Amount, and
- (e) $23.4 million in respect of Bankhaus’s interests in the Category 2 Loans and 70% of the Category 2 Loan Cash

³ For certain Loans, the underlying documentation and/or local law require a European or, in one case, a Columbian bank, to be the Lender. The Lehman Parties will, therefore, need to transfer such loans to a so-called “facing” or “fronting” bank, who holds title for the benefit of the applicable Lehman Party and technically becomes the lender of record.

Amount (this amount being fixed and not affected by any changes in the principal balances, values or Category 2 Loan Cash Amount).

The Purchase Price payable at the Initial Closing will be reduced by the portion of the Purchase Price attributable to any Deferred Purchased Assets which are not purchased at the Initial Closing, and such deferred Purchase Price will then be required to be paid at the applicable Subsequent Closing for such Deferred Purchased Asset.

A sample calculation of the Purchase Price has been attached as Schedule 8 to the Agreement. Based on the schedules attached to the Agreement on the date of execution of the Agreement, the aggregate Purchase Price payable at the Initial Closing is equal to (i) $1,388,900,000 if all Bankhaus Assets are purchased at the Initial Closing, and (ii) $1,278,200,000 if all Bankhaus Assets other than the potential Deferred Purchased Assets are purchased at the Initial Closing.

Payment of Purchase Price

At the Initial Closing (or, with respect to any Deferred Purchased Assets, at the applicable Subsequent Closing), the Lehman Parties are required to pay an amount (the “Net Payment Amount”) equal to the applicable Purchase Price less the Category 2 Loan Cash Amount (excluding that portion of the Category 2 Loan Cash Amount attributable to any Deferred Purchased Assets) and the Net Payment Amount due at a Subsequent Closing shall be equal to the Purchase Price for such Deferred Purchased Asset less, if applicable, any related Category 2 Loan Cash Amount attributable to such Deferred Purchased Asset.

The applicable Purchase Price is apportioned among the Lehman Parties such that each Lehman Party pays an amount attributable to the Bankhaus Assets it is purchasing and each Lehman Party is entitled to deduct from such Purchase Price an amount equal to that portion of the Category 2 Loan Cash Amount attributable to the Category 2 Loans being acquired by such Lehman Party.

Debt Service Payments

Debt service payments made in respect of the Category 1 Loans and Category 2 Loans from the date of execution of the Agreement through the applicable closing date are to be segregated and included in the Category 1 Loan Cash Amount and Category 2 Loan Cash Amount, respectively, together with all such cash accumulated to date.

Title Defects

To the extent that any of the assigned Bankhaus Assets are subject to certain title defects as described in the Agreement, the Lehman Parties (and, under certain circumstances, the LBB InsAdmin) have the option to exclude them from the applicable closing or, if closing has already occurred with respect to such assets, the Lehman Parties

(and, under certain circumstances, the LBB InsAdmin) have the right to require a repurchase of such assets by the LBB InsAdmin.

Closing

Upon the satisfaction of certain closing conditions, the closing of the transaction (the “Initial Closing”) shall occur at a mutually convenient time agreed upon by the parties but no later than ten business days following the later of (i) the date on which a court order approving the transaction has been entered by the Bankruptcy Court and has become final, and (ii) the date on which the LBB InsAdmin has obtained approval from the Bankhaus creditors’ committee of the final version of the Agreement (the date on which the Initial Closing occurs being referred to as the “Initial Closing Date”).

For various reasons described in the Agreement, certain Category 2 Loans and Category 4 Loans have been identified as potential deferred purchased assets (the “Deferred Purchased Assets”) the purchase of which may not close on the Initial Closing Date and which may need to close on a subsequent date (each, a “Subsequent Closing”). If a Subsequent Closing with respect to any Deferred Purchased Asset has not occurred by July 31, 2010, the parties will have no further obligations with respect to such asset.

Material Value Change

Among the various closing conditions which must be satisfied in order to require that the Lehman Parties consummate the Initial Closing, is that no “Material Event” (as defined in the Agreement) shall have occurred after the date of execution of the Agreement and on or prior to the Initial Closing Date which causes the aggregate market value of all of the Bankhaus Assets as of the Initial Closing Date to have decreased by more than 25% of the aggregate value of all Bankhaus Assets as of the execution date of the Agreement (this decrease in value being referred to as a “Material Value Change”). If a Material Value Change has occurred, the parties are required to negotiate, in good faith, an adjustment in the Purchase Price to reflect the Material Value Change, provided that if they are unable to agree upon such adjustment, a third party appraiser is required to be retained to determine the value of the Bankhaus Assets for purposes of such adjustment.

Category 1 Loan Cash Amount

The aggregate amount of all cash and cash equivalents held, as of October 31, 2009, as segregated funds by or on behalf of any of the Lehman Parties and derived from payments made under or in respect of any of the Category 1 Loans together with any debt service payments made in respect of any Category 1 Loans from October 31, 2009 through the Initial Closing Date is referred to as the “Category 1 Loan Cash Amount.” As of October 31, 2009, the Category 1 Loan Cash Amount was equal to $437,456,054.18.

Category 2 Loan Cash

The aggregate amount of all cash and cash equivalents held, as of

Amount

November 17, 2009, as segregated funds by or on behalf of any of the LBB InsAdmin or Bankhaus and derived from payments made under or in respect of any of the Category 2 Loans and the Repaid Category 2 Loans (as defined in the Agreement) together with any debt service payments made under any Category 2 Loans or under any Repaid Category 2 Loans from November 17, 2009 through the applicable Closing Date is referred to as the “Category 2 Loan Cash Amount.” As of November 17, 2009, the Category 2 Loan Cash Amount was equal to $4,263,889.24.

Releases

At the applicable closing, the LBB InsAdmin and the Lehman Parties are required to provide mutual releases with respect to any claims arising out of or in connection with any of the Category 1 Loans, the Category 2 Loans, the Category 4 Loans, the Schedule 6 Loans or, except as described in the Agreement, the Category 3 Loans, or arising under any applicable participation agreements.

At the applicable closing, the LBB InsAdmin is required to (a) terminate the LBHI Agreements (as defined in the Agreement and which includes the Security & Collateral Agreement) to the extent that any obligations or liabilities of LBHI thereunder arise or exist with respect to any Category 1 Loans, Category 2 Loans, Category 4 Loans or Schedule 6 Loans, or any of the participation agreements pursuant to which any of such loans were participated (collectively, the “Terminated Obligations”) and (b) release LBHI from any claims relating to the Terminated Obligations.

Indemnification

Each of the LBB InsAdmin and the Lehman Parties (each, an “indemnitor”) have agreed to indemnify the other party(ies) for and in respect of any losses that are paid, suffered or incurred by such other party(ies) as a result of the breach of an express representation or warranty by the indemnitor. In addition, each transferee of a Category 1 Loan, Category 2 Loan or Category 3 Loan has agreed to indemnify and hold the LBB InsAdmin harmless from any claims made against the LBB InsAdmin by any person and arising from acts, omissions or events that occur after the Initial Closing Date or Subsequent Closing Date, as applicable, with respect to any such loan that has been assigned to such transferee, excluding, however, any claims arising from any acts or omissions of the LBB InsAdmin.

25. The Lehman Parties and the LBB InsAdmin have also negotiated a resolution of certain claims between them arising out of or relating to the Participations and, inter alia, the Security & Collateral Agreement. Notably, the Lehman Parties and the LBB InsAdmin acknowledge that because the Category 3 Participations were in the UK-style form, neither Bankhaus nor the LBB InsAdmin has any ownership interest in the Category 3 Loans, and the nature of the relationship between Bankhaus and the Lehman Parties who are Lenders is that of creditor and debtor. Accordingly,

(a) With respect the Category 3 Loans, the Lehman Parties and the LBB InsAdmin have agreed that the LBB InsAdmin will have an allowed and accepted non-priority unsecured claim in the amount of $1,015,500,000 against LCPI on account of and arising from the Category 3 Loans after deduction of all claims which LCPI holds against Bankhaus and/or the LBB InsAdmin on account of and arising from the Category 2 Loans and the Category 4 Loans (collectively, the “Bankhaus Net Cat 3 Claim”).

(b) Further, the Lehman Parties and the LBB InsAdmin have agreed that the LBB InsAdmin will have an allowed and accepted non-priority unsecured claim as a creditor against LBHI on account of any and all claims arising under the Security & Collateral Agreement relating to the Category 3 Loans and relating to one of the Category 1 Loans (referred to as the O.T.A. Senior Loan) in an aggregate amount equal to $1,380,900,000 less the amount of any distributions that are received by the LBB InsAdmin in respect of the Bankhaus Net Cat 3 Claim (the “Security & Collateral Agreement Claim”); provided, however, that

(i) the Lehman Parties reserve the right to seek a reduction or disallowance of the Security & Collateral Agreement Claim in the event that LCPI is substantively consolidated with LBHI;

(ii) the LBB InsAdmin reserves all rights, claims, defenses and objections related thereto, including but not limited to the right to oppose substantive consolidation and the right to oppose reduction or disallowance of the Security & Collateral Agreement Claim in the event of substantive consolidation of LCPI and LBHI; and

(iii) under no circumstances shall the LBB InsAdmin be entitled to collect or receive, collectively, from both LCPI and LBHI or from any entity resulting from the substantive consolidation of LCPI and LBHI an amount in excess of the amount of $1,380,900,000.00 on account of and arising from the Bankhaus Net Cat 3 Claim and the Security & Collateral Agreement Claim (together, the “Allowed Claims”).

(c) The Allowed Claims shall be treated in a like manner to that of other general unsecured claims against LBHI and LCPI and receive treatment and distribution on account of such claims equal to that of other general unsecured claims against LBHI and LCPI, and shall not be subject to further defenses, whether by way of set off, recoupment, counterclaim or otherwise, or any claim under section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise which would have the effect of subordinating either Allowed Claim to the claims of other general unsecured claims

(d) On the Initial Closing Date, all Bankhaus participation interests, if any, with respect to the Category 3 Loans will be automatically terminated.

26. To the extent that the obligations of the Lehman Parties under the Agreement are joint and several, the Lehman Parties have negotiated and will execute a letter-agreement pursuant to which each Lehman Party will be entitled to reimbursement from the applicable Lehman Party to the extent that any one Lehman Party satisfies an obligation allocable to another Lehman Party.

27. As to one of the Loans, Woodlands Commercial Bank (“Woodlands”) is currently the Lender, and approximately $6 million of cash (the “Woodlands Cash”) is currently payable to Bankhaus and is included as Category 1 Loan Cash. As to another of the Loans, Aurora Bank, FSB (“Aurora” and, together with Woodlands, the “U.S. Banks”) is the Lender, and approximately $100,000 of cash (the “Aurora Cash” and together with the Woodlands Cash, the “U.S. Bank Cash”)⁴ is currently payable to Bankhaus and is included as Category 1 Loan Cash. Because Bankhaus is or could be deemed to be an affiliate of the U.S. Banks, approval from the appropriate regulators may be required in order for them each to pay the U.S. Bank Cash to Bankhaus. If such approval is not obtained at the time that payment is to be made to the LBB InsAdmin, LBHI seeks approval, pursuant to section 105 and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, to make such payment on behalf of the U.S. Banks, which payment will result in LBHI obtaining a claim against each of the U.S. Banks for its applicable share (the “LBHI U.S. Bank Funding”).

28. Using the illustrative calculations in Schedule 8, and assuming all Bankhaus Assets are purchased at the Initial Closing resulting in a Net Payment Amount of $ 1,388,900,000, based on the value of the respective Bankhaus Assets to be acquired by each of them, LBHI will be obligated to pay an aggregate purchase price of $158,100,000,⁵ LCPI will be obligated to pay an aggregate purchase price of $1,182,400,000, and ALI will be obligated to pay an aggregate purchase price of $48,400,000.

29. The Debtors submit that each of them has more than sufficient cash both to enable it to pay the Net Payment Amount, and retain sufficient cash and anticipated cash that will allow it to continue to operate and maximize recoveries from its remaining assets. ALI does not have the cash to make the requisite payment. Because ALI cannot consummate the transaction at this time, LBHI seeks approval, pursuant to sections 105 and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, to purchase, for nominal consideration, ALI's interests the Bankhaus Assets allocated to it under the Agreement (the "ALI Purchase"). As a result of the ALI Purchase, LBHI's payment to the LBB InsAdmin will increase by (using the illustrative calculation above) $48,400,000 to $206,500,000.

The Agreement Meets the Legal Standard Established Under Rule 9019 And Is In The Best Interests of The Debtors' Estates

30. The Debtors submit that the proposed Agreement is in the Debtors' best interests and should be approved under Rule 9019 of the Bankruptcy Rules. Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a) provides that, "[o]n motion by the [debtor-in-possession] and after notice and a hearing, the court may approve a compromise or settlement." Fed R. Bankr. P. 9019(a). This rule empowers bankruptcy courts to approve compromises "if they are in the best interest of the Additionally, a court may exercise its discretion “in light of the general public policy favoring settlements.” In re Hibbard Brown & Co., Inc., 217 B.R. 41, 46 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998). However, the analysis must focus on the question of whether a particular compromise is “fair and equitable, and in the best interest of the estate.” In re Best Products, 165 B.R. 35, 50 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1994) (internal citations omitted).

32. While a court must “evaluate ... all ... factors relevant to a fair and full assessment of the wisdom of the proposed compromise,” Anderson, 390 U.S. at 424-25, a court need not conduct a “mini-trial” of the merits of the claims being settled, W.T. Grant Co., 699 F.2d at 608, or conduct a full independent investigation. Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, 134

B.R. at 496. “[T]he bankruptcy judge does not have to decide the numerous questions of law and fact.... The court need only canvass the settlement to determine whether it is within the accepted range of reasonableness.” Nellis, 165 B.R. at 123 (internal citations omitted).

33. The court may give weight to the “informed judgments of the ... debtor-in-possession and their counsel that a compromise is fair and equitable, and consider the competency and experience of counsel who support the compromise.” Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, 134 B.R. at 505 (internal citations omitted); see also In re Purofied Down Prods. Corp., 150 B.R. 519, 522 (S.D.N.Y. 1993); accord In re Ashford Hotels Ltd., 226 B.R. 797, 802 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998) (“Significantly, that test does not contemplate that I substitute my judgment for the Trustee’s, but only that I test his choice for reasonableness.... If the Trustee chooses one of two reasonable choices, I must approve that choice, even if, all things being equal, I would have selected the other.”).

34. Significantly, there is no requirement that “the value of the compromise ... be dollar-for-dollar the equivalent of the claim.” Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 156 B.R. at 427. Instead, “there is no reason, at least in theory, why a satisfactory settlement could not amount to a hundredth or even a thousandth part of a single percent of the potential recovery.” Id. at 427-28 (quoting City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corp., 495 F.2d 448 (2nd Cir. 1974)).

35. Because the presence of a guarantee is a critical factor that courts consider when deciding whether participations are loans rather than true sales, the Debtors believe that the existence of the Security & Collateral Agreement results in a debtor-creditor relationship between the Lehman Parties and Bankhaus under the Category 1 Participations. Specifically, inasmuch as, pursuant to the Security & Collateral Agreement, LBHI has guaranteed Bankhaus against the economic risks inherent in the Category 1 Loans, the Category 1 Participations are not true participations, but rather, loans made by Bankhaus to the Lehman Parties.

36. Such a characterization, however, could only be obtained at the cost of protracted and uncertain litigation with the LBB InsAdmin not only over the weight that should be assigned to this factor, and also whether the Security & Collateral Agreement can in fact be construed as a guarantee as the Security & Collateral Agreement's status as a guarantee is uncertain.

37. Furthermore, even if the Security & Collateral Agreement is characterized as a guarantee, the Debtors would need to address the fact that the guarantee was provided by LBHI, which was not the seller of most of the Participations. Although this would not be an issue with respect to the loans participated by LBHI to Bankhaus – because, with respect to such loans, LBHI would be both the seller of the participation and the guarantor – a far greater percentage of loans were participated by LCPI or ALI to Bankhaus. It is unclear whether a guarantee from LBHI (LCPI's ultimate parent) should be construed as the functional equivalent of a guarantee from LCPI, the seller of most of the participations.

The Agreement Represents An Appropriate Exercise of The Debtors' Business Judgment

38. Ample authority exists for approval of the proposed Agreement. Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, “[t]he trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate.” 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). LBHI and LCPI are seeking approval of the Agreement under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code insofar as the Agreement contemplates the purchase of the Bankhaus Assets.

39. While section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code does not set forth a standard for determining when it is appropriate for a court to authorize the sale, disposition or other use of a debtor's assets, courts in the Second Circuit and others, in applying this section, have required that it be based upon the sound business judgment of the debtor. See In re Chateaugay Corp., 973 F.2d 141 (2d Cir. 1992) (holding that a judge reviewing a section 363(b) application must find from the evidence presented a good business reason to grant such application); Comm. of Equity Sec. Holders v. Lionel Corp. (In re Lionel Corp.), 722 F.2d 1063, 1071 (2d Cir. 1983) (same).

40. The Debtors believe that the loans underlying the Participations, including the Category 1 Loans, offer substantial value for their estates. Any uncertainty, however, as to the ownership of these loans hinders the Debtors' ability to maximize their value, either through collection or, wherever necessary, restructuring. Therefore, the Debtors believe that the value of the Category 1 Loans would be maximized if the Lehman Parties and the LBB InsAdmin clarified the legal nature of their respective interests therein, and if the Lehman Parties were given full ownership and control of the Category 1, 2, and 4 Loans. The Agreement accomplishes this by providing for the purchase of these loans (by termination or assignment of Bankhaus's interests therein) by the applicable Lehman Parties who serve either as Lender or Participant therein.

41. Furthermore, based on their analysis of the underlying loans, the Debtors have determined that the Purchase Price is fair and represents a substantial discount to the loans' current market value.⁶ Given this discount, the Debtors believe the Purchase Price offers the best means of maximizing the value of the underlying loans for the benefit of their estates, and provides a substantial potential for profit on the upside for the Lehman Parties.

42. The Agreement also allows the Lehman Parties and Bankhaus to terminate their common interest in the Categories 1, 2, and 4 Participations – a result that is beneficial to both of their estates because of the substantive differences in their respective insolvency proceedings. Whereas the Lehman Parties may contemplate a long-term strategy for maximizing the value of the loans, this is not a viable strategy for the LBB InsAdmin within the framework of a German bank liquidation. These essential differences between the chapter 11 process and Bankhaus's foreign main proceeding provide the incentive for the LBB InsAdmin to sell Bankhaus's interest in the loans to the Lehman Parties at a discount, thus allowing the Debtors to profit substantially from the loans in the future.

43. Finally, under the Agreement, LBHI will receive a significant reduction in potential claims by the LBB InsAdmin under, inter alia, the Security & Collateral Agreement.

The Agreement Should Be Approved

44. While the Debtors are foregoing their ability to assert that Bankhaus has no ownership interest in the Category 1 Loans, the Agreement allows the Debtors to preserve and maximize the value of all the loans that underlie the Participations, and particularly the Category

⁶ The Debtors have disclosed the aggregate purchase price in order to provide sufficient information for the purposes of evaluating the Agreement. The mark-to-market value and purchase price of individual loans has been redacted because it is commercially sensitive information, disclosure of which, particularly to the borrowers, could significantly impair the estate's ability to maximize the value the loans, or the LBB InsAdmin's ability to maximize their value if this Motion is denied.

1 Loans, while avoiding the expense and uncertainty of protracted litigation over the proper treatment of the Category 1 Participations and the concomitant loss of value of the underlying loans that will inevitably occur while the ownership issues are litigated. The Agreement provides for the purchase of the Bankhaus Assets for approximately $1,388,900,000 at a discount to the aggregate current market value thereof (as estimated by the Lehman Parties and the LBB InsAdmin) of approximately $2,148,600,000 and at a significantly larger discount to the aggregate outstanding principal balance of the loans totaling approximately $3,459,200,000. Consequently, the Debtors believe that the Agreement will result in a substantial upside profit to the their estates. The Agreement therefore offers the combined benefit of (i) resolving potentially costly and protracted litigation, (ii) transferring clear title to commercial and real estate loans having an aggregate outstanding principal balance totaling approximately $3,459,200,000 to the Lehman Parties at a profitable discount, and (iii) fixing LBHI's liability under the Security & Collateral Agreement with respect to the Category 3 Loans and releasing LBHI from potential liability under certain other Bankhaus-related documents.

45. For these reasons, entry into the Agreement represents an exercise of the Debtors' sound business judgment, is in the best interest of the Debtors' estates and creditors, and should be approved.

and instruments as may be reasonably requested by LCPI to evidence or further assure the foregoing assignment.

The Category 1 Loan BH Interests, the Category 2 Loan BH Interests, the Category 4 Loan BH Interests and all other interests, cash and other assets to be terminated and relinquished or assigned, transferred, conveyed and/or delivered by the LBB InsAdmin to any Lehman Party, Category 1 Loan Transferee, Category 2 Loan Transferee, Category 4 Loan Transferee or Category 1 Loan Holder, pursuant to the provisions of this Section 2.a. or any other provision of this Agreement being collectively referred to herein as the “Bankhaus Assets.”

b. Purchase Price. (1) In consideration for the acquisition of the Bankhaus Assets and the other benefits to be derived by the Lehman Parties under this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents, at the Initial Closing (or, with respect to that portion of the Purchase Price attributable to any Deferred Purchased Assets, at the applicable Subsequent Closing), the Lehman Parties shall pay to the LBB InsAdmin an aggregate purchase price (the “Purchase Price”) equal to the sum of (i) an aggregate amount equal to sixty percent (60%) of the Applicable Value as of the Initial Closing Date of each Category 1 Loan, (ii) an aggregate amount equal to eighty percent (80%) of the Applicable Value as of the applicable Closing Date of each Category 4 Loan (excluding the M-Loans), (iii) an aggregate amount equal to fifty-three percent (53%) of the outstanding principal balance of the M-Loans as of the applicable Closing Date (provided, that for purposes of calculating the Purchase Price attributable to the M-Loans, the principal balance of the M-Loans shall not be increased or include any amounts which have been funded, directly or indirectly, by any Lehman Party or an Affiliate thereof at any time on or after September 15, 2008); (iv) an aggregate amount equal to seventy percent (70%) of the Category 1 Loan Cash Amount; and (v) $23.4 million in respect of all of the Category 2 Loan BH Interests and seventy percent (70%) of the Category 2 Loan Cash (such amount being apportioned to each Category 2 Loan as reflected on Schedule 3 hereto). For purposes of clarity, the Category 2 Loan Cash reflected on Schedule 3 constitutes one hundred percent (100%) of the Category 2 Loan Cash attributable to each Category 2 Loan as of the applicable date indicated on Schedule 3. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary contained herein, if any Deferred Purchased Assets are not purchased at the Initial Closing, the Purchase Price payable at the Initial Closing shall be reduced by an amount equal to that portion of the Purchase Price which is attributable to such Deferred Purchased Assets (as reflected on Schedule 3 and Schedule 4 hereof), and the Purchase Price payable for each such Deferred Purchased Asset at the applicable Subsequent Closing shall be the Purchase Price for such Deferred Purchased Asset as reflected on Schedule 3 or Schedule 4 hereof. For informational purposes only, a sample calculation of the Purchase Price is attached hereto as Schedule 8 which results in a Net Payment Amount (as defined in Section 2.c. below) of (x) $1,388,900,000.00 if all Bankhaus Assets are purchased at the Initial Closing and (y) $1,278,200,000.00 if all Bankhaus Assets other than those Category 2 Loans and Category 4 Loans more particularly described on Schedule 11 are purchased at the Initial Closing.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, for purposes of determination of the Purchase Price payable by the Lehman Parties to the LBB InsAdmin on the Initial Closing Date, calculations shall be made based upon outstanding principal balances and Applicable Values reflected in the Schedules attached to this Agreement. Not later than sixty (60) calendar days after the Initial Closing Date, the Purchase Price shall be recalculated based upon such information updated as of the close of business on the Business Day immediately preceding the Initial Closing Date, and payment shall be made to the Party or Parties entitled thereto by the other Party or Parties of the net amount of any overpayment or underpayment, as applicable, made on the Initial Closing Date. For the purpose of recalculating the Purchase Price, the Lehman Parties shall revise Schedule 2, Schedule 3 and Schedule 4 to reflect changes to the outstanding principal balances and Applicable Values resulting from payment receipts since the applicable date of each such Schedules attached to this Agreement and such revised Schedules shall be the basis for the recalculation of the Purchase Price.

The Parties agree that the allocated Purchase Price with respect to each Category 2 Loan is fixed and shall not change based upon any changes in principal balances, values or the Category 2 Loan Cash Amount.

With respect to any Deferred Purchased Assets which are Category 2 Loans and which are being transferred pursuant to the terms of this Agreement on a Subsequent Closing Date, the Lehman Parties shall revise Schedule 3 with respect to such Deferred Purchased Assets to reflect the specific portion of the Category 2 Loan Cash Amount attributable to each such Deferred Purchased Asset as of such Subsequent Closing Date.

With respect to any Deferred Purchased Assets which are Category 4 Loans and which are being transferred pursuant to the terms of this Agreement on a Subsequent Closing Date, the Lehman Parties shall revise Schedule 4 with respect to such Deferred Purchased Assets to reflect changes to the outstanding principal balances and Applicable Values resulting from payment receipts since the applicable date of Schedule 4 attached to this Agreement and such revised Schedule 4 shall be the basis for the calculation of the Purchase Price allocated to and payable with respect to any such Deferred Purchased Assets.

The revised Schedules shall be delivered to the LBB InsAdmin for verification and approval whereupon such Schedules shall replace, in their entirety, the corresponding Schedules attached to this Agreement as of the Execution Date. The Parties will cooperate in good faith to resolve any disputes with respect to such revised Schedules as soon as possible and proceed to the applicable Closing. To the extent that the Parties are unable to resolve such disputes within thirty (30) days following the date on which such revised Schedules were delivered to the LBB InsAdmin, then the Parties agree that such dispute shall be resolved by the Bankruptcy Court upon and following the filing of an appropriate motion with respect thereto with the Bankruptcy Court.

c. Payment of Net Payment Amount. At the Initial Closing (or, with respect to any Deferred Purchased Assets, at the applicable Subsequent Closing), the Lehman Parties, collectively and being jointly and severally liable, shall, subject to the provisions of Section 2.b.(2) hereof, pay, or cause to be paid, to the LBB InsAdmin an amount (the "Net Payment Amount") equal to the applicable Purchase Price as determined pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.b. hereof less and except the Category 2 Loan Cash Amount; provided that, if any Deferred Purchased Assets are not purchased at the Initial Closing, the Category 2 Loan Cash Amount deducted from the applicable Purchase Price at the Initial Closing shall exclude any Category 2 Loan Cash attributable to the Deferred Purchased Assets (as reflected on Schedule 3 hereto); provided, further, that the Net Payment Amount due and payable at any Subsequent Closing shall be equal to the Purchase Price, as determined pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.b. hereof, for the Deferred Purchased Assets being acquired at such Subsequent Closing, less and except that portion of the Category 2 Loan Cash Amount attributable to such Deferred Purchased Assets (as reflected on Schedule 3 hereto). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or in any Ancillary Document, the aggregate portion of the Category 2 Loan Cash Amount which is attributable to the Repaid Category 2 Loans (such aggregate amount being equal to the Category 2 Loan Cash Amount less any portion thereof attributable to the Category 2 Loans and being referred to as the “Repaid Category 2 Loans Cash Amount”) shall be deducted from that portion of the Purchase Price which is payable at the Initial Closing by LCPI. The applicable Net Payment Amount shall be paid in immediately available funds in accordance with the wire transfer instructions set forth on Schedule 5 attached hereto and made a part hereof. The payment of the applicable Net Payment Amount shall be made without deductions, and the Lehman Parties shall not be permitted to off-set against the applicable Net Payment Amount any other claim, whether by set-off, recoupment, retention or any other theory, that any of the Lehman Parties may have against Bankhaus or the LBB InsAdmin. The applicable Purchase Price shall be apportioned among the Lehman Parties so that each Lehman Party shall pay, at the applicable Closing, an amount equal to that portion of the applicable Purchase Price which is attributable to the Bankhaus Assets being acquired by or for the benefit of such Lehman Party at such Closing and, for purposes of calculating the applicable Net Payment Amount due and payable by such Lehman Party, each Lehman Party shall be entitled to deduct from the applicable Purchase Price payable by such Lehman Party an amount equal to that portion of the Category 2 Loan Cash Amount derived from or otherwise attributable to Category 2 Loans being acquired by such Lehman Party at such Closing (as reflected on Schedule 3 attached hereto) and, in addition, LCPI shall also be entitled to deduct an amount equal to the Repaid Category 2 Loans Cash Amount at the Initial Closing. Provided that all Closing Conditions have been fully satisfied or waived by the applicable Parties and a Lehman Party refuses or otherwise fails to close by failing to pay any portion of the Net Payment Amount that is due and payable on such Closing Date (such Closing Date being referred to as the “Failed Closing Date”), then upon consummation of the applicable Closing at a subsequent date (such subsequent date being referred to as the “Actual Closing Date”), the Lehman Parties shall pay to the LBB InsAdmin, in addition to the Net Payment Amount due and payable on the Actual Closing Date, interest on such Net Payment Amount for the period commencing on the Failed Closing Date and ending on the Actual Closing Date at an annual rate equal to the Default Rate.

At Closing, the Lehman Parties shall be entitled to retain the Category 1 Loan Cash free and clear of any interest of Bankhaus or the LBB InsAdmin. The Category 1 Loan Cash and seventy percent (70%) of the Category 2 Loan Cash shall be delivered to, retained by or otherwise credited to the Lehman Parties as provided herein without deductions, and the LBB InsAdmin shall not be permitted to off-set against any payment to be made or otherwise credited to the Lehman Parties hereunder any other claim, whether by set-off, recoupment, retention or any other theory, that the LBB InsAdmin or Bankhaus may have against any Lehman Party. Except to the extent the same is credited against the applicable Purchase Price due and payable to the LBB InsAdmin as provided herein, the LBB InsAdmin and Bankhaus shall not be permitted to retain the portion of the Category 2 Loan Cash to be delivered to the Lehman Parties or any portion thereof due to any right of retention or similar right that either such party might have.

d. Debt Service Payments.

- i. The Lehman Parties hereby represent and warrant that all Debt Service Payments made to, or for the benefit of, the Lehman Parties on account of the Category 1 Loans from and including September 15, 2008 through the Execution Date shall constitute Category 1 Loan Cash at the Initial Closing.
- ii. The LBB InsAdmin hereby represents and warrants that all Debt Service Payments made to, or for the benefit of, the LBB InsAdmin on account of the Category 2 Loans and the Repaid Category 2 Loans from and including November 13, 2008 through the Execution Date shall constitute Category 2 Loan Cash at the applicable Closing.
- iii. The Parties hereby agree that (i) all Debt Service Payments made to, or for the benefit of, the Lehman Parties on account of the Category 1 Loans from the Execution Date through the Initial Closing Date shall be segregated and shall constitute Category 1 Loan Cash at the Initial Closing, (ii) all interest payments made on account of the M-Loans that have become, or may become, due and payable prior to the applicable Closing Date, regardless of when such payments are actually made (the “M-Interest Payments”), shall be segregated, and the LBB InsAdmin shall be entitled to retain and receive all M-Interest Payments in their entirety, and the Lehman Parties shall promptly transfer to the LBB InsAdmin any M-Interest Payments upon receipt, and if there are any outstanding M-Interest Payments following the Closing of the M-Loans, the Lehman Parties shall use reasonable efforts to claim such outstanding M-Interest Payments from the borrower after the applicable Closing Date and any payments made by the borrower on account of the M-Loans after the applicable Closing Date shall be applied in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Loan Documents relating to the M-Loans, (iii) all Debt Service Payments made to, or for the benefit of, the LBB InsAdmin on account of the Category 2 Loans and the Repaid Category 2 Loans from the Execution Date through the applicable Closing Date shall be segregated and shall constitute Category 2 Loan Cash at the applicable Closing, and (iv) the respective Category 1 Loan Holders and/or Category 1 Loan Transferees, Category 2 Loan Transferees and Category 4 Loan Transferees shall be entitled to any and all Debt Service Payments made on account of any Category 1 Loan, Category 2 Loan or Category 4 Loan (excluding any M-Interest Payments), respectively, on and after the applicable Closing Date, without regard to whether or not such Debt Service Payments are in respect of payments that became due and payable prior to such last day of the calendar month immediately preceding the Closing Date. Nothing in this Section 2.d.iii. shall affect the rights of the LBB InsAdmin under Section 2.d.iv. hereof.
- iv. (1) With respect to the Category 1 Loans, the Lehman Parties hereby represent and warrant that, since May 1, 2009 and except as set forth on Schedule 7 attached hereto and made a part hereof and except to the extent the same has been consented to or approved in writing by the LBB

InsAdmin on behalf of Bankhaus, the Lehman Parties have not (1) affirmatively agreed to defer or postpone, to a date following the Initial Closing Date, any scheduled Debt Service Payments that are otherwise required to be made pursuant to the terms of the applicable Loan Documents on or prior to the Initial Closing Date, or (2) sought to delay or postpone, to a date following the Initial Closing Date, any prepayments of any Debt Service Payments with respect to which the applicable borrower(s) have given written notice to any of the Lehman Parties would be made on or prior to the Initial Closing Date.

(2) With respect to the Category 1 Loans, the Lehman Parties shall not, without the consent of the LBB InsAdmin, affirmatively agree or consent to any delay or postponement of any scheduled Debt Service Payments that are required to be made, pursuant to the applicable Loan Documents, or any prepayments with respect to which the applicable borrower(s) have given written notice to any of the Lehman Parties would be made, in either case, on or prior to the Initial Closing Date.

(3) For purposes of the representation and covenant set forth in clauses (1) and (2) above, respectively, the Lehman Parties shall not be deemed to have affirmatively agreed or consented to any postponement or deferral of any Debt Service Payments or prepayments due to a lack of action; provided, that the Lehman Parties shall continue to invoice or cause to be invoiced the borrower(s) in respect of the Category 1 Loans in a manner that is consistent with past practices. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or in any other Ancillary Document, if any Lehman Party breaches the representation or covenant set forth in clauses (1) or (2) above with respect to any Debt Service Payment (a "Deferred Debt Service Payment") and the applicable borrower(s) makes a payment to such Lehman Party in respect of the Deferred Debt Service Payment within eighteen months following the Initial Closing Date, then such Lehman Party shall pay to the LBB InsAdmin an amount equal to (x) ten percent (10%) of that portion of the Deferred Debt Service Payment which is a principal payment, and (y) seventy percent (70%) of that portion of the Deferred Debt Service Payment which is not a principal payment, in each case, to the extent that such payment was paid to such Lehman Party within such eighteen-month period. The payment(s) to be made by the applicable Lehman Party under this clause (3) shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the LBB InsAdmin for any breach of the representation or covenant contained in clauses (1) and (2) above, respectively.

(4) If any Lehman Party receives a request from a borrower under any Category 1 Loan for the postponement, deferral or prepayment of any Debt Service Payment, such Lehman Party shall give prompt written notice of such written request to the LBB InsAdmin.

e. Participation Agreements. Except as provided for in Section 12, to the extent that the participation interests that were granted under or pursuant to the terms of any of the Participation Agreements are terminated at the Initial Closing pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and/or any of the Ancillary Documents, the Parties agree that from and after the Initial Closing at which such terminations are effectuated, the Parties shall have no further rights or obligations under the applicable Participation Agreements with respect to such terminated participation interests; provided that there shall be no termination, modification or impairment of any rights or obligations of any parties under any applicable Participation Agreement granting, creating, relating to or governing participation interests which are not expressly terminated pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and/or any of the Ancillary Documents. To the extent that any such participation interests are assigned at the Initial Closing, rather than terminated, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and/or any of the Ancillary Documents, the Parties agree that nothing contained herein or in the Ancillary Documents shall effect a termination, modification or impairment of any rights or obligations of any parties under any applicable Participation Agreement granting, creating, relating to or governing such participation interests.

3. LBB InsAdmin Representations and Warranties. In order to induce the Lehman Parties to enter into and perform their obligations under this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents to which they are parties, the LBB InsAdmin hereby represents, warrants and acknowledges as follows:

- a. Authority. The Bankhaus creditors committee (Gläubigerausschuss) (“Bankhaus Creditors Committee”) and the Bankhaus creditors assembly (Gläubigerversammlung) (“Bankhaus Creditors Assembly”) have each approved the execution and delivery of, and the performance of the obligations of the LBB InsAdmin under, this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents by the LBB InsAdmin and the transactions contemplated herein and in the Ancillary Documents (collectively, the “Initial Bankhaus Creditors’ Approval”). Further approval of the Bankhaus Creditors Committee of the final version of this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents will be required to be obtained by the LBB InsAdmin (the “Additional Committee Approval” and together with the Initial Bankhaus Creditors’ Approval, the “Bankhaus Creditors’ Approval”). Subject only to the Additional Committee Approval, (i) the LBB InsAdmin has the power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents to which it is a party, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, on behalf of the insolvency estate of Bankhaus, and (ii) the execution, delivery and performance by the LBB InsAdmin of this Agreement and each of the Ancillary Documents to which the LBB InsAdmin is a party and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of the LBB InsAdmin and no other proceedings on the part of the LBB InsAdmin are necessary to authorize and approve this Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents or any of the transactions contemplated thereby.
- b. Validity. Subject only to the Additional Committee Approval, (i) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the LBB InsAdmin and constitutes the legal, valid and binding agreement of the LBB InsAdmin, enforceable against the LBB InsAdmin in accordance with its terms, and (ii) upon execution and delivery of the Ancillary Documents to be executed by the LBB InsAdmin, all such Ancillary Documents will have been duly executed and delivered by the LBB InsAdmin and will constitute the legal, valid and binding agreement of the LBB InsAdmin in accordance with their respective terms.

- c. Authorization of Governmental Authorities and Creditors. No action by (including any authorization, consent or approval), in respect of, or filing with, any Governmental Authority is required for, or in connection with, the valid and lawful authorization, execution, delivery and performance by the LBB InsAdmin of this Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents other than the Additional Committee Approval.
 - d. No Reliance. The LBB InsAdmin (i) is a sophisticated party with respect to the matters that are the subject of this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents, (ii) has adequate information concerning the matters that are the subject of this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents, and (iii) has independently and without reliance upon any of the Lehman Parties or any of their Affiliates or any officer, employee, agent or representative thereof, and based on such information as the LBB InsAdmin has deemed appropriate, made his own analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents to which he is a party, except that the LBB InsAdmin has relied upon the Lehman Parties' express representations, warranties and covenants in this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents.
 - e. Title; No Transfer of Claims. The LBB InsAdmin has not, since November 13, 2008 (the date of opening of the insolvency proceedings of Bankhaus), assigned, transferred or conveyed to any other Person, in whole or in part, including for security, any of the Category 2 Loans, Category 4 Loans or Category 1 Loan Participations or any other Bankhaus Assets, or any right, title or interest therein or under any claims or causes of action that are the subject of this Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents.
 - f. No Fulfillment Rejection Claims. The LBB InsAdmin has no actual knowledge of any Fulfillment Rejection Claim which was raised in writing vis-à-vis the LBB InsAdmin between November 13, 2008 and the Execution Date in relation to those Category 2 Loans or Category 4 Loans with an outstanding funding commitment as set forth on Schedule 12 attached hereto and made a part hereof, unless the raising of such Fulfillment Rejection Claim is identified on Schedule 12.
4. Status of Title; Repurchase of Bankhaus Assets.
- a. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement or in the Ancillary Documents, the LBB InsAdmin makes no representations or warranties as to Bankhaus' rights to the Bankhaus Assets whatsoever including, without limitation, representations concerning the absence of third party rights therein or that Bankhaus has actually funded the participations being terminated or assigned pursuant to this Agreement.

- b. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is the intention of the Parties that Bankhaus is assigning, transferring and conveying to the respective Transferees, and the Lehman Parties are relying upon Bankhaus having, good and valid title to and being the sole owner of the Category 2 Loans and the Category 4 Loans and to all participation interests assigned to Bankhaus by any of the Lehman Parties with respect to the Category 1 Loans (“Category 1 Loan Participations”), free and clear of any lien, claim or interest of any other Person other than any interest of the Lehman Parties (any such lien, claim, interest or other defect or condition that would cause the state of title to deviate from the foregoing being referred to as a “Title Defect” with such term to exclude (w) any participations in the Facility Participation Loans to the Facility Participation Participants; (x) any lien, claim or interest that either (i) existed when a Lehman Party assigned, transferred and conveyed such Category 1 Loan Participation to Bankhaus; (ii) was created by or on behalf of any Lehman Party; (iii) has actually been known to a Lehman Party since September 15, 2008; (iv) first arose or was created after the applicable Closing; (y) liens, claims, interests, conditions or other defects of a Category 1 Loan Participation terminated, relinquished and quitclaimed under this Agreement; and (z) liens, claims, interests, conditions or other defects that do not affect the ownership of Bankhaus in or the title of Bankhaus to the respective Bankhaus Assets). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties agree that the inability of the LBB InsAdmin and/or Bankhaus to deliver documentation and/or originals of promissory notes, guarantees, letters of credits or any other instruments respecting the Category 2 Loans, the Category 4 Loans or any other Bankhaus Asset shall in no event constitute a Title Defect within the meaning of this Agreement (except to the extent provided in Section 8.b.viii hereof) and such inability shall be dealt with in Section 8.b.viii.
- c. In the event that the applicable Transferee determines that any Category 1 Loan Participation, Category 2 Loan or Category 4 Loan is subject to a Title Defect, the applicable Transferee may deliver to the LBB InsAdmin notice of such Title Defect, accompanied by evidence of such Title Defect reasonably acceptable to the LBB InsAdmin. Provided that such evidence is reasonably acceptable to the LBB InsAdmin, and provided further that the LBB InsAdmin receives such notice no later than eighteen months after the applicable Closing Date, the LBB InsAdmin shall refund to the applicable Transferee, not later than ninety days after receipt of such notice and evidence of the Title Defect, (i) the applicable Purchase Price with respect to the applicable Bankhaus Asset, less (ii) any principal payments received by the applicable Transferee, less (iii) thirty percent (30%) of any Category 1 Loan Cash or seventy percent (70%) of any Category 2 Loan Cash (if any) attributable to such Bankhaus Asset, plus (iv) an amount, which may be a negative number, equal to (x) interest on the applicable Purchase Price (less any principal payments received by the applicable Transferee) from the applicable Closing Date until the date of repayment at a rate equal to the interest rate received by the LBB InsAdmin on the Repurchase Reserve, minus (y) the amount of any interest payments received by the applicable Transferee since the applicable Closing Date, plus (v) all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with the reconveyance of the applicable Bankhaus Asset to the LBB InsAdmin (collectively, the “Repurchase Price”), and the applicable Transferee shall reconvey such Bankhaus Asset to the LBB InsAdmin (pursuant to such assignments and other documents consistent with the assignments and other documents executed and delivered in connection with the conveyance of such Bankhaus Asset pursuant to this Agreement and without any recourse to the applicable Transferee) simultaneously therewith; provided, that if the Bankhaus Asset to be reconveyed is a Category 2 Loan or Category 4 Loan and consent from any borrower, agent or other third party is required to be obtained in connection with the reconveyance of such Bankhaus Asset to the LBB InsAdmin or there are other conditions to such reconveyance which are required to be satisfied or complied with, then (x) the LBB InsAdmin shall cooperate and use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain such consent and/or cause any such other conditions to be satisfied or complied with so that the applicable Bankhaus Asset can be reconveyed to the LBB InsAdmin or to a transferee (to be designated by the LBB InsAdmin) which qualifies as a holder of the applicable Bankhaus Asset under the applicable Loan Documents, and (y) if for any reason, such consent cannot be obtained or such conditions cannot be satisfied or complied with despite the LBB InsAdmin's commercially reasonable efforts to obtain such consent and satisfy and comply with such conditions, the Parties agree that they shall reasonably negotiate a mutually acceptable agreement pursuant to which such Bankhaus Asset shall be held by the applicable Lehman Party as agent for and otherwise for the benefit of the LBB InsAdmin such that the LBB InsAdmin shall be the beneficial owner of all of the rights and benefits relating to such Bankhaus Asset and shall be the obligor with respect to all of the liabilities and obligations relating to such Bankhaus Asset (such agreement being referred to as a "Beneficiary Agreement") (in which case, the Repurchase Price shall be paid to the applicable Lehman Party upon execution and delivery of any such Beneficiary Agreement). Payment of the applicable Repurchase Price shall be made by the LBB InsAdmin to the applicable Lehman Party or Transferee without deductions, and the LBB InsAdmin shall not be permitted to off-set against the applicable Repurchase Price any other claim, whether by set-off, recoupment, retention or any other theory, that the LBB InsAdmin may have against any of the Lehman Parties or Transferees. The payment of the Repurchase Price shall be made at the time of reconveyance of the relevant Bankhaus Asset to the LBB InsAdmin or, if applicable, upon execution and delivery of a Beneficiary Agreement.

- d. Unless the LBB InsAdmin fails, refuses or is otherwise unable to comply with its repurchase obligations under this Section 4, the repurchase obligations of the LBB InsAdmin under this Section 4 shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Lehman Parties in respect of the existence of any Title Defect.
- e. The LBB InsAdmin shall hold in reserve (the "Repurchase Reserve") a portion of the Purchase Price paid to the LBB InsAdmin on the Initial Closing Date in an amount equal to the Repurchase Reserve Amount until the Repurchase Reserve Termination Date, to provide for the payment by the LBB InsAdmin of any Repurchase Price that may be payable under this Section 4; provided, that, if there is any pending notice of Title Defect (accompanied with evidence of such Title Defect reasonably acceptable to the LBB InsAdmin) ("Pending Notice") on the Repurchase Reserve Termination Date, then the LBB InsAdmin shall continue to hold funds in the Repurchase Reserve in an amount equal to the Repurchase Price for the Bankhaus Asset(s) identified in such Pending Notice until such Pending Notice has either been (i) withdrawn, in the sole and absolute discretion of the Lehman Parties, (ii) resolved by the payment to the applicable Transferee of the Repurchase Price for the Bankhaus Asset(s) indicated in such Pending Notice in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4, or (iii) resolved by the Bankruptcy Court upon and following the filing with the Bankruptcy Court of an appropriate motion with respect thereto. The funds in the Repurchase Reserve shall be held in a segregated interest-bearing account located at Deutsche Bank AG (which is subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the letter attached as Schedule 15 hereto and made a part hereof) or another financial institution reasonably acceptable to the Lehman Parties.

- f. In the event that a third party (the "Title Claimant") claims that it has a lien, claim, interest or other right in any Category 1 Loan Participation, Category 2 Loan or Category 4 Loan which would constitute a Title Defect and the Title Claimant provides evidence of such Title Defect reasonably acceptable to the LBB InsAdmin, the LBB InsAdmin may deliver to the applicable Transferee notice of such Title Defect, accompanied by evidence of such Title Defect. Provided that (i) such evidence is reasonably acceptable to such Transferee, (ii) the LBB InsAdmin can provide reasonable evidence that the repurchase of the relevant Bankhaus Asset would enable the LBB InsAdmin to avoid or mitigate any damage claims of the Title Claimant against Bankhaus and/or the LBB InsAdmin, and (iii) the applicable Transferee receives notice of such Title Defect no later than eighteen months after the applicable Closing Date, the repurchase mechanism set forth in Section 4.c. shall apply mutatis mutandis.

5. Lehman Representations and Warranties. In order to induce the LBB InsAdmin to enter into and perform his obligations under this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents to which he is a party, each of the Lehman Parties hereby represents, warrants and acknowledges as follows:

- a. Authority. Subject only to the Lehman Court Approval, (i) such Lehman Party has the power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement and the Ancillary Document to which it is a party, and (ii) the execution, delivery and performance by such Lehman Party of this Agreement and each of the Ancillary Documents to which such Lehman Party is a party and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of such Lehman Party and no other proceedings on the part of such Lehman Party are necessary to authorize and approve this Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents or any of the transactions contemplated thereby.
- b. Validity. Subject only to the Lehman Court Approval, (i) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by such Lehman Party and constitutes the legal, valid and binding agreement of such Lehman Party, enforceable against such Lehman Party in accordance with its terms, and (ii) upon execution and delivery of the Ancillary Documents to be executed by such Lehman Party, all such Ancillary Documents will have been duly executed and delivered by such Lehman Party and will constitute the legal, valid and binding agreement of such Lehman Party.

- c. Authorization of Governmental Authorities. No action by (including any authorization, consent or approval), in respect of, or filing with, any Governmental Authority is required for, or in connection with, the valid and lawful authorization, execution, delivery and performance by such Lehman Party of this Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents, other than the Lehman Court Approval.
- d. Title; No Transfer of Claims. The Lehman Parties have good and valid title to and have not assigned, transferred or conveyed to any other Person, in whole or in part, including for security, any of their respective right, title or interest in, to or under any claims or causes of action that are the subject of this Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents.
- e. No Reliance. Such Lehman Party (i) is a sophisticated party with respect to the matters that are the subject of this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents, (ii) has adequate information concerning the matters that are the subject of this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents, and (iii) has independently and without reliance upon the LBB InsAdmin or Bankhaus, and based on such information as such Lehman Party has deemed appropriate, made its own analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents to which it is a party, except that such Lehman Party has relied upon the LBB InsAdmin's express representations, warranties and covenants in this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents.
- f. Without in any way or manner waiving the rights of the Lehman Parties under Section 4, other than as disclosed on Schedule 10 of this Agreement and after due inquiry, the Lehman Parties have no actual knowledge of any Title Defects affecting any of the Category 1 Loan Participations, Category 2 Loans or Category 4 Loans.

6. Approval of the Agreement and Ancillary Documents.

a. Lehman Court Approval. The Lehman Parties will file with the Bankruptcy Court, within ten Business Days after the Execution Date, a motion seeking entry of an order (the "Lehman Court Order") in form and substance reasonably acceptable to each of the Parties: (i) approving, pursuant to Rule 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the terms of this Agreement; and (ii) authorizing LBHI and LCPI to take all necessary corporate actions to complete the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents. The Lehman Parties shall seek the issuance and entry of the Lehman Court Order and shall inform the LBB InsAdmin of the progress of the Bankruptcy Court procedures relating to the issuance and entry of the Lehman Court Order, including progress toward resolution of any objections to the Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents.

b. Bankhaus Creditors' Approval. The LBB InsAdmin obtained the Initial Bankhaus Creditors' Approval for the execution, delivery and performance of his obligations under this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents pursuant to the German Insolvency Code (Insolvenzordnung) on or about October 20, 2009. The LBB InsAdmin shall use all reasonable efforts to obtain the Additional Committee Approval as promptly as possible after the Execution Date. The LBB InsAdmin shall inform the Lehman Parties of the progress of such approval procedure.

7. Closing. Subject to the terms of Section 9 and provided that all Closing Conditions have otherwise been satisfied (or waived by the applicable Parties as provided herein), the closing of the acquisition of the Bankhaus Assets by the Lehman Parties and the other transactions contemplated under this Agreement (the "Initial Closing") shall occur at a mutually convenient time agreed upon by the Parties but no later than ten Business Days following the later of (i) the date on which the Lehman Court Approval has been obtained and (ii) the date on which the Additional Committee Approval has been obtained (such tenth Business Day following the later of the dates described in clauses (i) and (ii) being referred to as the "Outside Initial Closing Date"); provided, however, that with respect to any Deferred Purchased Assets, the closing of the acquisition of each such Deferred Purchased Asset by the applicable Lehman Party and the other transactions contemplated under this Agreement as they relate to such Deferred Purchased Asset (each, a "Subsequent Closing") shall occur on the applicable Subsequent Closing Date. Each Closing shall be held at the offices of Sonnenschein Nath & Rosenthal LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York, or such other place, date and time as is mutually agreed upon by the Parties and in accordance with the terms of this Agreement (with respect to the Initial Closing, the "Initial Closing Date" and with respect to any Subsequent Closing, no later than the Outside Subsequent Closing Date), time being of the essence, and shall be subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions (collectively, the "Closing Conditions"):

- a. No Stay or Other Legal Prohibition. There shall not be in effect any Legal Requirement or Governmental Order that would render the Parties unable to consummate or perform the transactions contemplated herein or make such transactions illegal or prohibit, restrict or delay such consummation or performance, and there shall not be in effect any injunction or other order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction restraining or prohibiting the consummation and performance of the transactions contemplated herein.
- b. Bankhaus Creditors' Approval. The Bankhaus Creditors Committee and the Bankhaus Creditors Assembly shall have authorized and approved the execution and delivery of, and the performance of the obligations of the LBB InsAdmin under, this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents by the LBB InsAdmin and the transactions contemplated herein and in the Ancillary Documents, and the LBB InsAdmin shall have provided the Lehman Parties with a copy of relevant portions of the minutes of the meeting(s) at which the Bankhaus Creditors' Approval was obtained reflecting the approval of this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents, which approval be in full force and effect as of the applicable Closing Date.

- c. Lehman Court Approval. The Lehman Court Order shall have been issued and entered by the Bankruptcy Court and shall have become a Final Order (referred to herein as “Lehman Court Approval”) and shall be in full force and effect as of the Closing Date.
- d. Lehman Closing Conditions. Unless waived in writing by each of the Lehman Parties in their sole and absolute discretion, the obligation of the Lehman Parties to consummate the Initial Closing and each Subsequent Closing shall be expressly conditioned upon and subject to the satisfaction each of the following conditions (the “Lehman Closing Conditions”) at or prior to the applicable Closing:
- i. each of the representations and warranties of the LBB InsAdmin contained in this Agreement and in the Ancillary Documents shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the applicable Closing Date with the same force and effect as if made on and as of the applicable Closing Date;
 - ii. the LBB InsAdmin shall have performed and complied in all material respects with all agreements, obligations and covenants contained in this Agreement that are required to be performed or complied with by the LBB InsAdmin at or prior to the applicable Closing;
 - iii. the LBB InsAdmin shall have executed and delivered, or caused to have been executed and delivered, to the Lehman Parties all of the Bankhaus Closing Deliveries required to be executed and delivered with respect to the applicable Closing;
 - iv. (1) with respect to the Initial Closing, no Material Event(s) shall have occurred after the Execution Date and on or prior to the Initial Closing Date which causes the aggregate market value of all Bankhaus Assets as of the Initial Closing Date to have decreased by more than twenty-five percent (25%) from the aggregate value of all Bankhaus Assets on the Execution Date (reflected as the “Applicable Value” or “Value” on Schedule 2, Schedule 3 and Schedule 4 hereto) (any such decrease resulting from one or more Material Events being referred to herein as a “Material Value Change”); provided, that any change in the market value of any Bankhaus Asset resulting from the occurrence of an event other than a Material Event (including the making of any principal payments in respect of any of the Loans) shall be disregarded for purposes of determining whether a Material Value Change has occurred;
 - (2) if the Lehman Parties claim that a Material Value Change has occurred, they shall provide documentation to the LBB InsAdmin that enables the LBB InsAdmin to evaluate and determine the alleged decrease in value (the Parties hereby agreeing that updated market values for the Bankhaus Assets shall constitute sufficient documentation for such purpose);
 - (3) if a Material Value Change shall have occurred, the Parties shall negotiate, in good faith, an adjustment in the Purchase Price to reflect the Material Value Change and if they are unable to agree upon such adjustment within ten days following the commencement of such negotiations or if the Parties disagree about whether or not a Material Value Change has occurred or the extent thereof, the Parties shall retain a Third Party Appraiser (whose fees shall be paid by the Lehman Parties and the LBB InsAdmin on a fifty-fifty basis) to determine the aggregate value of the Bankhaus Assets as of the Initial Closing Date (which aggregate value shall be determined using the same assumptions used by the Parties in the determination of the Applicable Values as of the Execution Date) for purposes of determining the extent (if any) of a Material Value Change and which determination shall be conclusive and binding on the Parties for purposes of calculating an adjustment to the Purchase Price reflecting such Material Value Change. To the extent that the Parties are unable to mutually agree upon a Third Party Appraiser, then the Parties agree that such dispute shall be resolved by the Bankruptcy Court upon and following the filing of an appropriate motion with respect thereto with the Bankruptcy Court;

(4) notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 7.d.iv., the Parties acknowledge that the “Applicable Value” or “Value” of each of the Bankhaus Assets as set forth on Schedule 2, Schedule 3 and Schedule 4 is an estimate and that the actual value of each of the Bankhaus Assets may differ materially from such estimate and that, except as provided in this Section 7.d.iv. and in Section 7.e.iv., if the value of any Bankhaus Asset differs materially from the aforementioned estimate of the Parties, no Party shall have any recourse against the Released Parties (as defined in the Mutual Release Agreement) based upon any such difference between the actual value and estimated value of such Bankhaus Asset;

(5) notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 7.d.iv., the LBB InsAdmin shall have the right, at its election, to terminate this Agreement by written notice to the Lehman Parties if the Lehman Parties claim that a Material Value Change has occurred and the Third Party Appraiser or the Bankruptcy Court agrees that a Material Value Change has occurred. Upon such termination, all Parties shall be automatically relieved of any further obligations hereunder (except for any obligations which are stated to survive the termination of this Agreement) and Section 11.d shall apply; and

- v. No Title Defects have been identified with respect to any of the Bankhaus Assets; provided, that if any Title Defects have been identified with respect to any Bankhaus Asset, the Lehman Parties may elect, in their sole and absolute discretion, to include or exclude such Bankhaus Asset from the applicable Closing and, in either case, shall proceed to Closing with respect to all other Bankhaus Assets (other than any Deferred Purchased Assets). Any such Bankhaus Asset which the Lehman Parties elect to exclude from the applicable Closing shall be deleted from all applicable Schedules hereto and the Schedules shall be updated to reflect such deletion. The Lehman Parties shall promptly notify the LBB InsAdmin in writing if they determine that any Category 1 Loan Participation, Category 2 Loan or Category 4 Loan is subject to a Title Defect, accompanied by evidence of such Title Defect reasonably acceptable to the LBB InsAdmin. The Parties will cooperate in good faith to resolve, as soon as possible, any dispute arising under or with respect to any matters described in this Section 7.d.v. To the extent that the Parties are unable to resolve such dispute, then the Parties agree that such dispute shall be resolved by the Bankruptcy Court upon and following the filing of an appropriate motion with respect thereto with the Bankruptcy Court. The LBB InsAdmin may also elect to exclude a Bankhaus Asset from the applicable Closing if (i) a Title Claimant provides evidence of a Title Defect of such Bankhaus Asset reasonably acceptable to the LBB InsAdmin and the Lehman Parties and (ii) the LBB InsAdmin can provide reasonable evidence that the exclusion of the relevant Bankhaus Asset would enable the LBB InsAdmin to avoid or mitigate any damage claims of the Title Claimant against Bankhaus and/or the LBB InsAdmin.

- e. LBB InsAdmin Closing Conditions. Unless waived in writing by the LBB InsAdmin in its sole and absolute discretion, the obligation of the LBB InsAdmin to consummate the Initial Closing and each Subsequent Closing shall be expressly conditioned upon and subject to the satisfaction each of the following conditions (the “LBB InsAdmin Closing Conditions”) at or prior to the applicable Closing:
- i. each of the representations and warranties of the Lehman Parties contained in this Agreement and in the Ancillary Documents shall be true and correct in all materials respects as of the applicable Closing Date with the same force and effect as if made on and as of the applicable Closing Date;
 - ii. the Lehman Parties shall have performed and complied in all material respects with all agreements, obligations and covenants contained in this Agreement that are required to be performed or complied by the Lehman Parties at or prior to the applicable Closing;
 - iii. the Lehman Parties shall have executed and delivered, or caused to have been executed and delivered, to the LBB InsAdmin all of the Lehman Closing Deliveries required to be executed and delivered with respect to the applicable Closing; and
 - iv. with respect to the Initial Closing, no Material Event(s) shall have occurred after the Execution Date and on or prior to the Initial Closing Date which causes the aggregate market value of all Bankhaus Assets as of the Initial Closing Date to have increased by more than twenty-five (25%) from the aggregate value of all Bankhaus Assets on the Execution Date (reflected as the “Applicable Value” or “Value” on Schedule 2, Schedule 3 and Schedule 4 hereto) (any such increase resulting from one or more Material Events also being referred to herein as a “Material Value Change”); provided, that any change in the market value of any Bankhaus

Asset resulting from the occurrence of an event other than a Material Event shall be disregarded for purposes of determining whether a Material Value Change has occurred; provided, that if the LBB InsAdmin claims that a Material Value Change has occurred, he shall provide documentation to the Lehman Parties that enables the Lehman Parties to evaluate and determine the alleged increase in value (the Parties hereby agreeing that updated market values for the Bankhaus Assets shall constitute sufficient documentation for such purpose); provided, further, that if the LBB InsAdmin claims that such an increase has occurred, subparagraphs (3) and (4) of Section 7.d.iv. shall apply mutatis mutandis.

8. Closing Deliveries.

a. Lehman Closing Deliveries. At the applicable Closing, and provided that all of the Closing Conditions have been satisfied (or waived as provided herein), the Lehman Parties shall pay or cause to be paid the applicable Net Payment Amount to the LBB InsAdmin in immediately available funds in accordance with the wire transfer instructions set forth on Schedule 5 hereto, and shall execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, each of the following documents and other items (collectively, the "Lehman Closing Deliveries"):

- i. a closing certificate, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A-1 attached hereto and made a part hereof, duly executed by each of the Lehman Parties and certifying the accuracy of the representations and warranties made by the Lehman Parties hereunder, and confirming that each of the Lehman Closing Conditions have been satisfied or have otherwise been waived by the Lehman Parties;

- i. a closing certificate, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A-2 attached hereto and made a part hereof, duly executed by LBB InsAdmin and certifying the accuracy of the representations and warranties made by the LBB InsAdmin hereunder, and confirming that the LBB InsAdmin Closing Conditions have been satisfied or have otherwise been waived by the LBB InsAdmin;

requirements (collectively, the “Non-Category 1 Assignment and Assumption Agreements”), together with any consents which may be required from any borrowers or other parties under any of the Loan Documents, and (ii) all other Ancillary Category 2 Loan Documents and Ancillary Category 4 Loan Documents, each duly executed by the LBB InsAdmin in favor of the applicable Category 2 Loan Transferees and Category 4 Loan Transferees;

- v. with respect to those Category 2 Loans and Category 4 Loans where Bankhaus is identified as being an “Agent” (where Bankhaus is an administrative, collateral, syndication, facility, security or other agent under any Category 2 Loan or any Category 4 Loan) on Schedule 3 and Schedule 4, respectively, assignments and/or resignation and appointment instruments in such forms as may be required, contemplated or specified under and otherwise conforming to the terms of the applicable Loan Documents in order to effectuate a Category 2 Loan Agency Substitution and a Category 4 Loan Agency Substitution with respect to each such Loan;
- vi. the Mutual Release Agreement, duly executed by the LBB InsAdmin;
- vii. a termination and release agreement in favor of LBHI with respect to the LBHI Agreements (the “LBHI Release Agreement”), substantially in the form of Exhibit F attached hereto, duly executed by the LBB InsAdmin;
- viii. the original R-Note, originals of other promissory notes, guarantees and letters of credit listed on Schedule 14 (collectively, the “Essential Original Loan Documents”), and, to the extent within the possession, custody or control of the LBB InsAdmin or Bankhaus, all other Loan Documents respecting the Category 2 Loans and Category 4 Loans (it being understood that the LBB InsAdmin shall be entitled to keep copies of such originals as required by law); provided, that, if any Essential Original Loan Document has been lost or misplaced and cannot be located and delivered to the applicable Transferee at the applicable Closing, then the LBB InsAdmin shall execute and deliver to the applicable Transferee, in lieu of delivering such Essential Original Loan Document, a lost note affidavit or other document or instrument as may be requested by the Lehman Parties to replace such lost or misplaced Essential Original Loan Document and to cure or eliminate any limitation or impediment to the full enforcement of the rights and remedies of, and/or the realization of the benefits inuring to, the holder of such Essential Original Loan Document created by or resulting from the failure of the LBB InsAdmin to deliver the Essential Original Loan Document to the applicable Transferee (each, a “Substitute Document”), but only to the extent that providing such Substitute Document does not entail significant expense or contravene any applicable laws or regulations, in particular with respect of the purposes of the insolvency proceedings; provided, further, that if the LBB InsAdmin fails or is otherwise unable to deliver an Essential Original Loan

Document or any Substitute Document in lieu thereof, then the Lehman Parties shall not be required to purchase the applicable Category 2 Loan or Category 4 Loan and such Loan shall be treated as if a Title Defect exists with respect to such Loan and shall be subject to exclusion from this Agreement at the election of the Lehman Parties and such exclusion shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Lehman Parties in respect of such failure or inability;

- ix. all Escrow Funds held by the LBB InsAdmin under any of the Category 2 Loans or Category 4 Loans, which Escrow Funds shall be delivered to the applicable Category 2 Loan Transferees and Category 4 Loan Transferees in accordance with wire transfer instructions provided to the LBB InsAdmin at or prior to the applicable Closing;
- x. to the extent within the possession, custody or control of the LBB InsAdmin or Bankhaus, copies of all Loan Files relating to any of the Loans;
- xi. good and valid title to any collateral (including, without limitation, any cash or cash equivalents, equity interests, securities, real or personal property but excluding any cash collateral held in connection with the M-Loans if such cash collateral consists of accumulated interest payments which are to be retained or received by the LBB InsAdmin in accordance with Section 2.d.) or the Proceeds thereof that the LBB InsAdmin holds in respect of any of the Bankhaus Assets (for the avoidance of doubt, this Section 8.b.xi. does not apply to cash collateral provided under the Security & Collateral Agreement, which shall remain with the LBB InsAdmin);
- xii. copies of relevant sections or portions of the minutes of the meetings at which the Initial Bankhaus Creditors' Approval and the Additional Committee Approval were obtained; and
- xiii. all other documents, instruments, certificates and agreements required to be delivered by or on behalf of the LBB InsAdmin under this Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents and any other documents or deliveries reasonably requested by the Lehman Parties in order to effectuate the transactions contemplated herein.

9. Deferred Purchased Assets. The Parties acknowledge that, to the extent various foreign law requirements, required consents or approvals from third parties or other circumstances outside the control of the Parties would render any assignment of the applicable Bankhaus Assets ineffective, void or voidable or otherwise impossible as of the Initial Closing Date, the consummation of the transfer and assignment of some or all of those Category 2 Loans and Category 4 Loans more particularly described on Schedule 11 attached hereto and made a part hereof may need to occur on a date subsequent to the Initial Closing Date to be mutually agreed upon by the Parties but within ten Business Days following the satisfaction of all Closing Conditions applicable to any such transfer and assignment (those Category 2 Loans and/or Category 4 Loans which are not assigned and transferred on the Initial Closing Date being referred to collectively as the “Deferred Purchased Assets,” and each date on which the consummation of the transfer and assignment of any Deferred Purchased Asset occurs being referred to as a “Subsequent Closing Date”); provided, however, that no Subsequent Closing Date shall be later than July 31, 2010 (the “Outside Subsequent Closing Date”) provided that all Closing Conditions applicable to any Subsequent Closing shall have been fully satisfied or otherwise waived as provided in this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any of the Ancillary Documents, provided that the Closing Conditions have been satisfied or waived with respect to the transfer and assignment of all Category 1 Loan BH Interests, then the Initial Closing shall proceed with respect to all Bankhaus Assets other than the Deferred Purchased Assets as provided in this Agreement, subject to the following: (i) those Ancillary Documents related solely to the transfer and assignment of the Deferred Purchased Assets shall not be executed and delivered at the Initial Closing but shall be executed and delivered at the applicable Subsequent Closing, (ii) the Ancillary Documents executed and delivered at the Initial Closing (including the Mutual Release Agreement and the LBHI Release Agreement) shall be modified, as necessary, to exclude therefrom any reference to or inclusion of the Deferred Purchased Assets; provided, however, that similar Ancillary Documents shall be executed and delivered in connection with each Subsequent Closing with respect to, and referencing and including, the Deferred Purchased Assets being transferred and assigned at such Subsequent Closing, (iii) the Purchase Price payable on the Initial Closing Date shall be adjusted to exclude any portion thereof attributable to the Deferred Purchased Assets, and (iv) the Net Payment Amount payable on the Initial Closing Date shall be adjusted to exclude, in the calculation thereof, any portion of the Category 2 Loan Cash Amount attributable to the Deferred Purchased Assets. All Closing Conditions shall be applicable to the closing of the transfer and assignment of any Deferred Purchased Assets as if such closing had occurred on the Initial Closing Date, and the Parties shall execute and deliver the Ancillary Documents respecting any such Deferred Purchased Asset on the applicable Subsequent Closing Date for such Deferred Purchased Asset and shall otherwise comply with the terms and provisions of this Agreement in connection with the consummation of such closing as if the same had occurred on the Initial Closing Date; provided, however, that the applicable Purchase Price for each Deferred Purchased Asset shall be determined on and as of the Subsequent Closing Date applicable to such Deferred Purchased Asset. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if the closing of any Deferred Purchased Assets has not occurred prior to the Outside Subsequent Closing Date, then the Parties shall have no further obligations with respect to any such Deferred Purchased Assets and this Agreement shall be of no further force or effect with respect to the acquisition of the same by the Lehman Parties.

10. Pre-Closing Covenants.

a. Conduct of the LBB InsAdmin Prior to the Closing. From the Execution Date to the earlier of (i) the applicable Closing Date, and (ii) the termination of this Agreement in accordance with the terms hereof, except as may be consented to in writing by the Lehman Parties or as otherwise expressly provided herein or as Bankhaus has otherwise agreed in the Loan Documents or in any Participation Agreement to which any Person other than the Parties is a party (and a copy of which has been provided to the Lehman Parties prior to the Execution Date),

(A) to the extent permitted by law, the LBB InsAdmin shall not, without the consent of the Lehman Parties:

- i. sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of the Bankhaus Assets (including, without limitation, the Category 2 Loan Cash which shall continue to be segregated from any other assets of Bankhaus until the applicable Closing Date) or any interest therein, whether in whole or in part;
- ii. make any change in accounting methods, principles or practices relating to any of the Bankhaus Assets;
- iii. amend, modify, terminate or subordinate any Loan Document;
- iv. encumber any of the Bankhaus Assets;
- v. waive, modify, alter, cancel, accept a discounted payoff of, or subordinate any Bankhaus Asset in any respect, or foreclose or otherwise proceed against the collateral for, accept a deed in lieu of foreclosure of, or compromise or settle any claims with respect to, any of the Bankhaus Assets, or rescind, and the related collateral shall not be released from, the lien, encumbrance or security interest of, nor shall the borrower, guarantor, mortgagor or pledgor be released from its obligations under, any of the Loan Documents, in whole or in part, nor shall any instrument be executed that would effect any such waiver, modification, alteration, cancellation discounted payoff, subordination, foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure, compromise or settlement, rescission or release, except as required by law or by the related Loan Documents;
- vi. take any action which would cause any of the representations or warranties of the LBB InsAdmin contained in this Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents to be untrue in any material respect;
- vii. take any action which would materially affect any of the rights of any of the Lehman Parties in, to or under the Bankhaus Assets following the consummation of the applicable Closing; or
- viii. agree to take any action that would effectuate or result in any of the foregoing items i. through vii. above.

and (B) the LBB InsAdmin shall deliver to the Lehman Parties copies of any notices or other correspondence (including any default notices) delivered to or received from the applicable borrowers and other obligors under the Loan Documents.

The LBB InsAdmin shall not be obligated to fund under any of the Loans (but shall promptly notify the Lehman Parties of the receipt by it of any funding request) or accept any instructions from the Lehman Parties in respect of the Bankhaus Assets and, for the avoidance of doubt, may (but is not obligated to) take any measure which the LBB InsAdmin deems necessary to maintain the value of and safeguard the Bankhaus Assets, provided that (i) the LBB InsAdmin shall notify the Lehman Parties within a reasonable time of taking any such measure, and (ii) any such measure shall not contravene the provisions of Section 10.a.(A) above.

b. Conduct of the Lehman Parties Prior to Closing. From the Execution Date to the earlier of (i) the applicable Closing Date, and (ii) the termination of this Agreement in accordance with the terms hereof, except as may be consented to in writing by the LBB InsAdmin or as otherwise expressly provided herein, the Lehman Parties shall not take any action which would cause any of the representations or warranties of the Lehman Parties contained in this Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents to be untrue in any material respect.

c. [Intentionally Omitted]

d. Notices of Material Events. Each Party will give prompt notice to the other Parties of any fact, to the knowledge of such Party, that would, if it were true on the applicable Closing Date, constitute a breach of such Party's representations, warranties or covenants under this Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents. Each Party to this Agreement will give prompt written notice to the other Parties of any material development affecting the ability of such Party to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents. No disclosure by any Party pursuant to this Section 10.d. shall be deemed to prevent or cure any misrepresentation, breach of warranty or breach of covenant.

e. Approvals. None of the Parties shall take any action which would cause the Lehman Court Approval or the Bankhaus Creditors' Approval to be modified, vacated or stayed or otherwise to not remain in full force and effect.

11. Termination.

a. Automatic Termination. This Agreement shall automatically terminate and be of no further force or effect and the Parties hereto shall be automatically relieved of any further obligations hereunder (except for any obligations which are stated to survive the termination of this Agreement) if and on any date on which the Bankruptcy Court denies the motion seeking issuance of the Lehman Court Order with prejudice or on February 26, 2010 if the Lehman Court Approval and the Additional Committee Approval have not been obtained on or prior to such date. If the Bankruptcy Court conditions any approval of the motion upon the making of any modification to this Agreement, the Parties shall discuss such conditions in good faith. If the Parties cannot agree upon the necessary modification to this Agreement within thirty days after the relevant order of the Bankruptcy Court, this Agreement shall automatically terminate and be of no further force or effect and the Parties hereto shall be automatically relieved of any further obligations hereunder (except for any obligations which are stated to survive the termination of this Agreement).

b. Lehman Parties' Right to Terminate. The Lehman Parties shall have the right, at their election, to terminate this Agreement by written notice to the LBB InsAdmin if there is a breach, in any material respect, of the representations, warranties and/or covenants of the LBB InsAdmin hereunder, taken as a whole, and the LBB InsAdmin shall fail to cure such breach within fifteen days following written notice of such breach from the Lehman Parties; provided, that nothing herein shall in any way affect or impair the Lehman Parties' rights to require that all Closing Conditions be satisfied in connection with any Closing. Upon such termination, all Parties shall be automatically relieved of any further obligations hereunder (except for any obligations which are stated to survive the termination of this Agreement). The foregoing termination right is not intended to be and shall not be an exclusive remedy for the Lehman Parties resulting from a breach by the LBB InsAdmin as described above, but the Lehman Parties shall further be entitled to all rights and remedies available in equity or at law.

c. LBB InsAdmin's Right to Terminate. The LBB InsAdmin shall have the right, at its election, to terminate this Agreement by written notice to the Lehman Parties if there is a breach, in any material respect, of the representations, warranties and/or covenants of the Lehman Parties hereunder, taken as a whole, and the Lehman Parties shall fail to cure such breach within fifteen days following written notice of such breach from the LBB InsAdmin; provided, that nothing herein shall in any way affect or impair the LBB InsAdmin's right to require that all Closing Conditions be satisfied in connection with any Closing. Upon such termination, all Parties shall be automatically relieved of any further obligations hereunder (except for any obligations which are stated to survive the termination of this Agreement). The foregoing termination right is not intended to be and shall not be an exclusive remedy for the LBB InsAdmin resulting from a breach by the Lehman Parties as described above, but the LBB InsAdmin shall further be entitled to all rights and remedies available in equity or at law.

d. Effect of Termination. In the event that this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms by any Party, then neither this Agreement, nor any motion or other pleading filed in the Lehman Bankruptcy Case with respect to the approval of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, shall have any res judicata or collateral estoppel effect or be of any force or effect, each of the Parties' respective interests, rights, remedies and defenses shall be restored without prejudice as if this Agreement had never been executed. Except as expressly provided herein or in any of the Ancillary Documents (and then only upon the consummation of the Initial Closing and, with respect to any Deferred Purchased Assets, each applicable Subsequent Closing), this Agreement and all communications and negotiations among the Parties with respect hereto or any of the transactions contemplated hereunder are without waiver of or prejudice to the Parties rights and remedies and the Parties hereby reserve all claims, defenses and positions that they may have with respect to each other.

12. Agreement Regarding Claims. The Parties hereby confirm, acknowledge and agree as follows:

a. the loans, debts, obligations, facilities notes or portions thereof, set forth on Schedule 13 attached hereto and made a part hereof (collectively, the "Category 3 Loans") were participated pursuant to LMA-style participation agreements and, as a result, neither Bankhaus nor the LBB InsAdmin has any ownership interest in any of the Category 3 Loans but the nature of the relationship between Bankhaus (and/or the LBB InsAdmin) and the Lehman Parties who are record owners of the Category 3 Loans is that of creditor and debtor;

b. the Lehman Parties hereby represent that they have no knowledge that the nature of the relationship between Bankhaus (and/or the LBB InsAdmin) and the Lehman Parties who are record owners of the Category 3 Loan is other than that of creditor and debtor;

c. the LBB InsAdmin hereby represents that he has no knowledge that the nature of the relationship between LCPI and Bankhaus (and/or the LBB InsAdmin) with respect to the Category 4 Loans is other than that of creditor and debtor. For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties acknowledge and agree that nothing in this Agreement shall in any way or manner imply or constitute an election or deemed election by the LBB InsAdmin (by his act or omission) of the fulfillment of any Participation Agreement in respect of the Category 4 Loans within the meaning of Section 103 of the German Insolvency Code;

d. the Lehman Court Order shall provide that the LBB InsAdmin has an allowed and accepted non-priority unsecured claim in the amount of $1,015,500,000.00 against LCPI on account of and arising from the Category 3 Loans after deduction of all claims which LCPI holds against Bankhaus and/or the LBB InsAdmin on account of and arising from the Category 2 Loans and the Category 4 Loans (collectively, the "Bankhaus Net Cat 3 Claim");

e. except as hereinafter provided, the Lehman Court Order shall provide that the LBB InsAdmin has an allowed and accepted non-priority unsecured claim as a creditor against LBHI on account of any and all claims arising under the Security & Collateral Agreement relating to the Category 3 Loans and relating to the O.T.A. Senior Loan in an aggregate amount equal to $1,380,900,000.00 less the amount of any distributions that are received by the LBB InsAdmin in respect of the Bankhaus Net Cat 3 Claim (the "Security & Collateral Agreement Claim"); provided, however, that the Lehman Parties reserve the right to seek a reduction or disallowance of the Security & Collateral Agreement Claim in the event that LCPI is substantively consolidated with LBHI; and provided, further, that the LBB InsAdmin reserves all rights, claims, defenses and objections related thereto, including but not limited to the right to oppose substantive consolidation and the right to oppose reduction or disallowance of the Security & Collateral Agreement Claim in the event of substantive consolidation of LCPI and LBHI; provided, further, that under no circumstances shall the LBB InsAdmin be entitled to collect or receive, collectively, from both LCPI and LBHI or from any entity resulting from the substantive consolidation of LCPI and LBHI an amount in excess of the amount of $1,380,900,000.00 on account of and arising from the Bankhaus Net Cat 3 Claim and the Security & Collateral Agreement Claim;

f. neither Bankhaus nor the LBB InsAdmin has any further claims against the Lehman Parties on account of or arising from the Category 3 Loans except as provided in Section 12.d. and Section 12.e. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event the Lehman Parties seek reduction or disallowance of the Security & Collateral Agreement Claim as described in Section 12.e., the LBB InsAdmin shall retain the right to assert all claims arising under the LBHI Agreements which pertain to the Category 3 Loans and LBHI shall retain the right to assert any and all defenses, objections and challenges to such claims;

g. except as provided in Section 4 hereof, the Lehman Parties have no further claims against Bankhaus and/or the LBB InsAdmin and the LBB InsAdmin has no further claims against the Lehman Parties on account of or arising from the Category 2 Loans or the Category 4 Loans if and to the extent they have been assigned, transferred, conveyed and delivered under this Agreement and have not been repurchased under Section 4.c;

h. for the avoidance of doubt, on the Initial Closing Date, all participation interests, if any, created to or for the benefit of Bankhaus by and under the Participation Agreements or otherwise with respect to each of the Category 3 Loans shall be automatically terminated, relinquished and quitclaimed without any further instrument being delivered by the LBB InsAdmin; provided, that the LBB InsAdmin shall, at the Lehman Parties' request, provide such further instruments and further assurances as may be reasonably requested by the Lehman Parties to evidence or further assure the foregoing termination;

i. this Agreement does not resolve any disputes between the Lehman Parties and the LBB InsAdmin respecting loans other than the Loans, the Category 3 Loans and the Schedule 6 Loans (the "Other Loans") and nothing contained herein shall in any way or manner impair the Parties' respective claims and other rights and remedies with respect to any Other Loans; and

j. the LBB InsAdmin hereby represents that he has not, since November 13, 2008, conveyed, transferred or assigned any claims that Bankhaus and/or the LBB InsAdmin may have arising from the Category 3 Loans to any third party and further agrees that he shall not convey, transfer or assign the Bankhaus Net Cat 3 Claim to any third party without the prior written consent of the Lehman Parties, which consent shall not be required if the LBB InsAdmin has provided to the Lehman Parties at least 10 days prior written notice of any such conveyance together with a copy of any conveyance instrument which clearly designates the Bankhaus Net Cat 3 Claim as a non-priority unsecured claim.

k. For the avoidance of doubt, except as otherwise provided in this Section 12, the Bankhaus Net Cat 3 Claim and the Security & Collateral Agreement Claim shall be treated in a like manner to that of other general unsecured claims against LBHI and LCPI and receive treatment and distribution on account of such claims equal to that of other general unsecured claims against LBHI and LCPI, and shall not be subject to further defenses, whether by way of set off, recoupment, counterclaim or otherwise, or any claim under Section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise which would have the effect of subordinating the Bankhaus Net Cat 3 Claim or the Security & Collateral Agreement Claim to the claims of other general unsecured claims.

13. Indemnification.

a. Bankhaus Indemnification. If the Initial Closing occurs, the LBB InsAdmin shall indemnify each Lehman Party (which, for purposes of this Section 13.a, shall include their respective officers, directors, advisors, attorneys and Affiliates) against and in respect of any and all Losses that are paid, suffered or incurred by any such Lehman Party as a result of the breach of an express representation or warranty made by the LBB InsAdmin hereunder. Any claims by a Lehman Party for indemnification under this Section 13.a, must be made in writing. The obligation of the LBB InsAdmin to indemnify the Lehman Parties as provided in this Section 13.a, constitutes the sole remedy of the Lehman Parties under this Agreement if a Closing occurs (but only with respect to the Bankhaus Assets that have been terminated or transferred and assigned in connection with such Closing and not with respect to any Bankhaus Assets which have not yet been terminated or transferred and assigned hereunder) with respect to the breach of an express representation or warranty by the LBB InsAdmin hereunder. Nothing contained in this Section 13.a. shall in any way affect or impair the Lehman Parties' rights to require that all Closing Conditions be satisfied in connection with any Closing.

b. Lehman Parties' Indemnification. If the Initial Closing occurs, the Lehman Parties, each individually and not jointly and severally, shall indemnify the LBB InsAdmin against and in respect of any and all Losses that are paid, suffered or incurred by the LBB InsAdmin as a result of the breach of an express representation or warranty made by the Lehman Parties hereunder. In addition, each Transferee with respect to the Assigned Category 1 Loan Interests, the Category 2 Loans and the Category 4 Loans shall indemnify and hold the LBB InsAdmin harmless from any claims made against the LBB InsAdmin by any Person (including, without limitation, any borrower, guarantor or other obligor under the applicable Loan Documents) and arising from acts, omissions or events that occur after the applicable Closing Date (including, without limitation, any such claim arising from such Transferee's failure to comply with the obligations assumed by such Transferee under the applicable Category 1 Assignment and Assumption Agreement or Non-Category 1 Assignment and Assumption Agreement) with respect to any Assigned Category 1 Loan Interest, Category 2 Loan or Category 4 Loan assigned to such Transferee, excluding, however, any claims arising from any acts or omissions of the LBB InsAdmin; provided, that the applicable Transferee shall have the right to participate in, and at its election, to assume the defense of, any action or proceeding relating to any such claims for which the LBB InsAdmin is seeking to be indemnified hereunder with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the LBB InsAdmin. Any claims by the LBB InsAdmin for indemnification under this Section 13.b. must be made in writing. The obligation of the Lehman Parties to indemnify the LBB InsAdmin as provided in the first sentence of this Section 13.b. constitutes the sole remedy of the LBB InsAdmin under this Agreement if a Closing occurs (but only with respect to the Bankhaus Assets that have been terminated or transferred and assigned in connection with such Closing and not with respect to any Bankhaus Assets which have not yet been terminated or transferred and assigned hereunder) with respect to any breach of an express representation or warranty by the Lehman Parties hereunder. Nothing contained in this Section 13.b. shall in any way affect or impair the LBB InsAdmin's right to require that all Closing Conditions be satisfied in connection with any Closing.

14. LBHI Agreements.

a. Except as provided in Section 12.e., the Parties acknowledge and agree that neither any reference herein or in any of the Ancillary Documents to any of the LBHI Agreements nor the execution and delivery of the LBHI Release Agreement shall in any way or manner imply or constitute an admission or concession on the part of LBHI or any of the other Lehman Parties that LBHI or any Affiliate thereof has or may have any liability or obligation under any of the LBHI Agreements and LBHI hereby reserves all of its rights, claims, defenses and objections with respect thereto.

b. For the avoidance of doubt, any cash collateral provided by the Lehman Parties to Bankhaus under the Security & Collateral Agreement shall remain with the LBB InsAdmin, and the LBB InsAdmin and Bankhaus shall under no circumstance be required to repay such cash collateral. The Lehman Parties expressly waive all of their rights with respect to such cash collateral including, but not limited to, all rights pursuant to the doctrines of set-off, recoupment, retention or any other legal or equitable theory.

15. Survival. The representations, warranties, covenants and agreements made by the Parties in this Agreement shall survive the Initial Closing and each Subsequent Closing.

16. Venue and Choice of Law.

a. Venue. To the maximum extent permissible by law, the Parties expressly consent and submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court over any actions or proceedings relating to the enforcement or interpretation of this Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents and any Party bringing such action or proceeding shall bring such action or proceeding in the Bankruptcy Court. Each of the Parties agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding, including all appeals, shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions (including any foreign jurisdictions) by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. If the Bankruptcy Court refuses or abstains from exercising jurisdiction over the enforcement of this Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents and/or any actions or proceedings arising hereunder or thereunder, then the Parties agree that venue shall be in any court in the State of New York having proper jurisdiction. Nothing in this Agreement shall affect any right that any Party may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding to enforce the Loans or any of the Loan Documents or otherwise relating to the Loans against any borrower or other obligor thereunder or the collateral securing such Loans in the court of any jurisdiction. Each Party hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent it may legally and effectively do so, (i) any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents with the Bankruptcy Court or with any other state or federal court located within the County of New York in the State of New York; and (ii) the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding in any such court. Each Party irrevocably consents to service of process in the manner provided for notices in Section 17 hereof. Nothing in this Agreement will affect the right, or requirement, of any Party to this Agreement to serve process in any other manner permitted or required by law.

b. Choice of Law. This Agreement and all claims and disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without regard to choice of law principles to the extent such principles would apply a law other than that of the State of New York.

17. Notices. All notices and other communications given or made pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed effectively given: (a) upon personal delivery to the party to be notified, (b) when sent by confirmed electronic mail or facsimile if sent during normal business hours of the recipient, and if not so confirmed, then on the next Business Day, (c) three days after having been sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or (d) one Business Day after deposit with a nationally recognized overnight courier, specifying next day delivery, with written verification of receipt. 5. Each of the Lehman Parties further (a) expressly warrants and represents that neither the Released Claims nor any part of any interest in any claim, contention, demand, or cause of action relating to any Released Claim or any portion of any recovery or settlement has been sold, granted, transferred, assigned or encumbered by such Lehman Party, and (b) hereby agrees to indemnify and to hold harmless the Released Parties against any claim, contention, demand, cause of action, obligation, damage (but excluding any punitive, special or consequential damages) and liability of any nature, character or description whatsoever, including the payment of attorneys' fees (including allocated costs incurred by internal counsel) and costs actually incurred, whether or not litigation is commenced, which may be based upon or which may arise out of or in connection with any such assignment or transfer or purported assignment or transfer by such Lehman Party.

7. The Lehman Parties and the LBB InsAdmin hereby agree not to bring, or assist in bringing, any Released Claims, and the Lehman Parties and the LBB InsAdmin further agree that this Release is, will constitute, and may be pleaded as, a bar to any such Released Claims. Neither the execution nor delivery of this Release by any party nor the payment of any consideration by any person incident to this Release is an admission of any wrongdoing whatsoever on the part of any party. Each of the Lehman Parties and the LBB InsAdmin for itself and for anyone claiming by, through or under it, hereby agrees to defend, protect, indemnify and hold harmless any and all of the Released Parties from and against all loss, cost, liability, damage (but excluding any punitive, special or consequential damages) and expense (including attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred by the Released Parties or any of them

12. This Release shall be construed according to and governed by the laws of the State of New York without giving effect to principles of conflicts of law to the extent that such principles would apply a law other than that of the State of New York.

13. This Release may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

14. The parties shall, from time to time, promptly execute and deliver such further instruments, documents and papers and perform such further acts as may be necessary or proper to carry out and effect the terms of this Release.

15. This Release, the Agreement and the Ancillary Documents constitute and are intended to constitute the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. No covenants, agreements, representations or warranties of any kind whatsoever have been made by any party except as specifically set forth herein or in the Agreement or the Ancillary Documents. All prior discussions and negotiations with respect to the subject matter hereof (including, without limitation, that certain Summary of Lehman/Bankhaus Issues – Proposed Deal Points, dated August 27, 2009) are superseded by this Release, the Agreement and the Ancillary Documents. It is expressly understood and agreed that this Release may not be altered, amended, modified or otherwise changed in any respect whatsoever except by a writing duly executed by authorized representatives of each of the parties hereto. FORM OF TERMINATION AND RELEASE AGREEMENT

TERMINATION AND RELEASE AGREEMENT

This Termination and Release Agreement ("Termination") is made as of this ____ day of _____, 2009, made by Dr. Michael C. Frege in his capacity as Insolvency Administrator (Insolvenzverwalter) over the assets of Lehman Brothers Bankhaus Aktiengesellschaft i. Ins. ("Bankhaus") (the "LBB InsAdmin") in favor of Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation ("LBHI"). Reference is made to that certain Agreement, dated as of December __, 2009, by and among the LBB InsAdmin, LBHI, Lehman ALI, Inc., and Lehman Commercial Paper Inc. (the "Agreement"); capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Agreement.

1. The LBB InsAdmin hereby terminates that certain Guarantee dated as of November 21, 2002 made by LBHI (the "Guarantee") and that certain Security & Collateral Agreement dated as of August 15, 2002 made by LBHI (the "Security & Collateral Agreement") and further terminates, waives, releases and relinquishes any right it may have to seek, demand or enforce any payment from LBHI thereunder or under the Parent Resolution (as hereinafter defined) (the Guarantee, Security & Collateral Agreement and Parent Resolution being collectively referred to herein as the "LBHI Agreements") as a result of any guarantees, obligations, undertakings or liabilities of LBHI, if any, under any of the LBHI Agreements, but such termination, waiver, release and relinquishment of rights is solely to the extent such rights exist in connection with, arise out of, or in any way relate, directly or indirectly, to any of the Loans or the Schedule 6 Loans (collectively, the "Relevant Loans"), or any of the Participation Agreements pursuant to which any of the Relevant Loans were participated (all of the foregoing being collectively referred to as the "Terminated Obligations"). LBHI, by its acknowledgement hereto, hereby agrees to the termination of the Guarantee and the Security & Collateral Agreement as and to the extent provided herein. LBHI further agrees that any cash collateral provided by LBHI to Bankhaus under the Security & Collateral Agreement shall remain with the LBB InsAdmin, and the LBB InsAdmin and Bankhaus shall under no circumstance be required to repay such cash collateral. LBHI expressly waives all of its rights with respect to such cash collateral including, but not limited to, all rights pursuant to the doctrines of set-off, recoupment, retention or any other legal or equitable theory. The term "Parent Resolution" shall mean that certain Unanimous Written Consent of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc., dated June 9, 2005 adopted by the members of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of LBHI, which superseded and replaced, in its entirety, that certain Unanimous Written Consent of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of LBHI, dated November 14, 1994.

2. The LBB InsAdmin, for and in consideration of the execution and delivery of the Agreement and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged hereby, (i) forever releases, waives, remises, acquits and discharges LBHI and its affiliates and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, managers, agents, representatives, independent contractors, administrators, consultants, attorneys, accountants, trustees, insurers and (as well as their predecessors, successors and assigns) (collectively, the "Released Parties"), of and from any and all claims, causes of action, damages, losses, debts, obligations, agreements, liabilities, attorneys' fees, costs and expenses, whether asserted or unasserted, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, fixed or contingent, foreseen or unforeseen and whether based on contract, tort, statute or other legal or equitable theory of recovery (collectively, "Claims") which the LBB InsAdmin now has or ever had against any of the Released Parties for or by reason of any Claims arising or accruing at any time on or prior to the date hereof in connection with, arising out of, or in any way relating, directly or indirectly, to the Terminated Obligations or any matters arising out of or in any way relating thereto (collectively, the "Released Claims") and (ii) covenants that it will not, on or after the [Initial/Subsequent] Closing Date, bring any action or initiate any proceeding in respect of the Released Claims against any of Released Parties; provided, however, that the Released Claims shall specifically exclude any claims arising under or in connection with (i) the Agreement, this Termination or any of the other Ancillary Documents (including, without limitation, those claims more specifically described in Section 12 of the Agreement), (ii) any Other Loans or any other loans other than the Relevant Loans, or the claims, rights and remedies of the parties with respect to the same including, without limitation, under the Participation Agreements related thereto, and there shall be no release of any of the Released Parties' obligations and liabilities in respect of the matters described in clauses (i) or (ii) above, and the LBB InsAdmin may fully enforce the obligations and liabilities of the Released Parties in respect of the matters described in clauses (i) and (ii) above just as if this Termination had not been executed. For the avoidance of doubt, except as provided herein, the foregoing release only includes the LBB InsAdmin's own Claims, if any, under the LBHI Agreements and does not include the Claims, if any, of any other parties to or named third party beneficiaries under any of the LBHI Agreements.

3. Except as provided in Section 12.e. of the Agreement, the LBB InsAdmin acknowledges and agrees that neither any reference herein to any of the LBHI Agreements nor the execution and delivery of this Termination shall in any way or manner imply or constitute an admission or concession on the part of LBHI or any of the other Released Parties that LBHI or any other Released Party has or may have any liability or obligation under any of the LBHI Agreements and LBHI and each other Released Party hereby reserve all of their respective rights, claims, defenses and objections with respect thereto.

4. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the LBB InsAdmin and the Released Parties agree that this Termination is a release in full in favor of the Released Parties with respect to the Released Claims but that this Termination does not release and nothing contained herein shall alter, affect or modify (a) the rights of any party under the Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents, (b) those representations, warranties, agreements or obligations to be fulfilled or performed from and after the date hereof which are set forth in, or which survive after the date hereof, pursuant to the Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents; (c) any rights any party may have to institute, maintain and prosecute an action or actions for any fraud or intentional misrepresentation by any party to the Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents in connection with the Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents; or (d) any rights any party may have to institute, maintain and prosecute an action or actions for any other claims against any other party under the Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents.

5. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the LBB InsAdmin expressly releases any and all past and present Released Claims, which the LBB InsAdmin does not know of or suspect to exist in his favor, whether through ignorance, oversight, error, negligence or otherwise, and which, if known, would materially affect his decision to enter into this Termination, and to this end he, to the extent permitted by law waives all rights under any statutory provision purporting to limit the scope or effect of a general release, whether due to lack of knowledge or otherwise.

6. The LBB InsAdmin further expressly warrants and represents that, since November 13, 2008, neither the Released Claims nor any part of any interest in any claim, contention, demand, or cause of action relating to any Released Claim or any portion of any recovery or settlement has been sold, granted, transferred, assigned or encumbered by the LBB InsAdmin. The LBB InsAdmin hereby agrees to indemnify and to hold harmless the Released Parties against any claim, contention, demand, cause of action, obligation, damage (but excluding any punitive, special or consequential damages) and liability of any nature, character or description whatsoever, including the payment of attorneys' fees (including allocated costs incurred by internal counsel) and costs actually incurred, whether or not litigation is commenced, which may be based upon or which may arise out of or in connection with any such assignment or transfer or purported assignment or transfer.

7. The LBB InsAdmin hereby agrees not to bring, or assist in bringing, any Released Claims, and the LBB InsAdmin further agrees that this Termination is, will constitute, and may be pleaded as, a bar to any such Released Claims. Neither the execution nor delivery of this Termination by any party nor the payment of any consideration by any person incident to this Termination is an admission of any wrongdoing whatsoever on the part of any party. The LBB InsAdmin, for himself and for anyone claiming by, through or under him, hereby agrees to defend, protect, indemnify and hold harmless any and all of the Released Parties from and against all loss, cost, liability, damage (but excluding any punitive, special or consequential damages) and expense (including attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred by the Released Parties or any of them in connection with, arising out of or in any way relating to any breach by the LBB InsAdmin of the covenants and agreements set forth in this Termination.

8. This Termination shall inure solely to the benefit of and be binding upon the LBB InsAdmin and the respective Released Parties.

9. If any provisions of this Termination are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, in whole or in part, the remaining provisions, and any partially invalid or unenforceable provisions, to the extent valid and enforceable, shall nevertheless be binding and valid and enforceable.

10. When necessary herein, all terms used in the singular shall apply to the plural, and vice versa, and all terms used in the masculine shall apply to the neuter and feminine genders, and vice versa.

11. This Termination shall be construed according to and governed by the laws of the State of New York without giving effect to principles of conflicts of law to the extent that such principles would apply a law other than that of the State of New York.

12. This Termination may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

13. The LBB InsAdmin shall, from time to time, promptly execute and deliver such further instruments, documents and papers and perform such further acts as may be necessary or proper to carry out and effect the terms of this Termination.

14. This Termination, the Agreement and the Ancillary Documents constitute and are intended to constitute the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. No covenants, agreements, representations or warranties of any kind whatsoever have been made by any party except as specifically set forth herein or in the Agreement or the Ancillary Documents. All prior discussions and negotiations with respect to the subject matter hereof (including, without limitation, that certain Summary of Lehman/Bankhaus Issues – Proposed Deal Points, dated August 27, 2009) are superseded by this Termination, the Agreement and the Ancillary Documents. It is expressly understood and agreed that this Termination may not be altered, amended, modified or otherwise changed in any respect whatsoever except by a writing duly executed by the LBB InsAdmin and LBHI. In any action to enforce or interpret this Termination, the Released Parties shall, in addition to all other relief, be entitled to an award for their respective attorneys' fees.

15. THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY INTENTIONALLY, KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, UNCONDITIONALLY AND IRREVOCABLY WAIVE THE RIGHT WHICH THEY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION BASED HEREON, OR ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS TERMINATION (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY ACTION TO RESCIND OR CANCEL THIS TERMINATION OR ANY CLAIMS OR DEFENSES ASSERTING THAT THIS TERMINATION WAS FRAUDULENTLY INDUCED OR IS OTHERWISE VOID OR VOIDABLE). THE FOREGOING WAIVER BY EACH PARTY IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR THE OTHER PARTIES TO ACCEPT THIS TERMINATION.
